IS HELD

Sixteenth Anniversary of Armistice Celebrated by Veterans Last Night

The sixteenth Armistice anniversary banquet held last night in the Canadian Legion clubrooms by the local branch was unanimously voted one of the best ever held. Following the singing of "O Canada" President Jack Preece opened with the impressive ritual, "The Last Post" was sounded by Bugler W. J. Rance, the silence observed and then the sounding of the "Reveille" after which grace was pronounced by Dean Gibson. The members then sat down to a well prepared banquet in the effectively decorated hall.

After enjoying the ample repast, the toast to the King was observed and a program of exceptional merit followed. Among those speaking were City Commissioner W. J. Alder, Dean Gibson, Rev. W. D. Grant Hollingworth, Lieut. Commander Walter Hume, representing the Navy, Major C. V. Evitt for the Regiment, M. L. Stepp, who brought greetings from the American Legion, Ex-Mayor C. H. Orme, Lt. Col. J. W. Nicholls and S. D. Macdonald. The speakers were as one in congratulating the Legion on the very notable Remembrance Day observance and the splendid support given by the general public.

Contributing to the entertainment were Leonard Cripps, Dr. R. G. Large, J. A. Teng and Bob James all in excellent vocal numbers, and M. J. Dougherty with stories in his best style.

The secretary, J. S. Wilson, enlarged on the valuable activities of the Legion in connection with relief and pension work among the returned men and special tribute was paid to Mrs. J. Preece and the Women's Auxiliary. Poppy Day returns from street sales were $101.48 from the schools the splendid total of $41.00 and by sale of poppies at the banquet another $20.00.

The faithful service of W. J. Rance as bugler at all times was enthusiastically recognized and a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to all artists and speakers with special one to the never tiring president. Jack Preece.

Community singing of the war time songs and choruses went with a swing with Sid Thomson at the piano and J. S. Wilson leading. Mr. Thomson also accompanied the singers with C. P. Balagno accompanying Dr. Large.

The regular monthly business ing plans for a forthcoming hoeluncheon of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club was held in the Boston Cafe down dance. President W. H. Tobey today when a number of items of was in the chair and there was a club business were taken up includ- good attendance of members.
