EMPRESS WIN OUT

Thursday Night's Billiard League Fixture Completed—Tuesday Games Outstanding

Thursday night's Prince Rupert Billiard League fixture between Canadian Legion and Empress was completed last night with the Empress winning by an aggregate score of 1448 to 1384. Individual scores in the three outstanding games were as follows:

- G. P. Tinker (Canadian Legion), 249; A. Cameron (Empress), 250.
- Alex Harvey, 250; A. Donald, 216.
- G. A. Woodland, 238; M. E. Young, 250.

In the fourth game of Tuesday night's match between Grotto and Elks, George Howe won for the Grotto over W. E. Williams by a score of 250 to 237, making the aggregate score to date 972 to 949 in favor of the Elks. The two remaining games are to be played at the week-end.

CRIBBAGE

Two Famous Football Teams Are Playing Annual Game at Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 8.—Notre Dame and University of Southern California Trojans are meeting here this afternoon in their annual football game. The Irish arrived last night from Tucson, Arizona.

G. A. Woodland, local agent of the Imperial Oil Co., returned to the city on the Prince George on Thursday evening from a trip to Stewart on company business.

WHIFFLETS

From the Waterfront

The City Bowling League will be open tomorrow afternoon on the newly-established alleys at the Elks' Home with teams meeting as follows:

- Senior Elks vs. Junior Elks.
- Twirlers vs. Moose.
- Kalen Hardware vs. Lambie & Stone.

League basketball activities are being continued with enthusiasm at Anyox and the players from the smelter town are said to be expecting inter-town competition with Prince Rupert again this winter. The Trojans and Vandals are both going strong in the senior division in which the Elks have been showing signs of disintegration recently. However the lodge has the makings of a real hoop squad and is hoping to mend its fences. In recent games the Trojans beat the Vandals but the Vandals then took the Elks into camp. There is also keen competition in the ladies' division with Aces, Spooks and Mine teams putting up a good brand of game.

Intertown basketball games between Premier and Stewart are also proving of interest. In the last games the Premier boys took a close decision by a score of 25 to 25 from Stewart while the Stewart girls piled up a score of 28 to 24 for the ladies from Premier. The next games will be played this Saturday and the competition will continue every second week thereafter so long as road conditions permit of the teams travelling.

Simple & effective

The good, old-fashioned mustard feet both stops colds and coughs quickly! It relieves grippy aches and pains; it opens the pores, induces perspiration, and sweats out poisons. Just use a tablespoonful of Colman's in hot water, soak your feet well and jump into bed still glowing. That's all!
