Urged to Invest In Human Life And Happiness

A strong appeal to the Rotary Club to invest in human life and happiness was made today by Major W. H. Watts, representing the blind people of Canada through the Canadian Institute for the Blind.

The Major told of his appeal to the different sections of the people of Prince Rupert, particularly to the young folks, whom he urged to give only money they earned themselves. He told of the wonderful work being done on behalf of (blind, many of whom had been restored to sight. He pictured what blindness meant and the disabilities under which the afflicted labored, particularly mentioning the long nights and blessings of the Braile system of reading

C. V. Evitt, who presided, thanked the speaker and assured him that all had been impressed by his
