LOCAL NEWS NOTES

Basketball, Saturday, January 6, Moose Hall, 8 p.m. Kincolith vs. Grotto, exhibition Intermediate game. 1t

C.P.R. steamer Princess Adelaide, Capt. Albert Rippon, is due in port at 4:15 this afternoon from the south and will sail at 10 p.m. on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

Mrs. J. S. Black's orchestra held another of its popular Scottish dances in the Moose Hall last Saturday night. There was a good-sized crowd in attendance and all had a very jolly time.

Mrs. L. W. Waugh and daughter, Genevieve, will leave on this evening's train for Toronto where they will join Mr. Waugh who was recently transferred to the Ontario metropolis in the service of the Canadian National Telegraphs.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wynne of Anyox and son, Dick, were guests at the Vancouver Province broadcasting station CKCD last night during the news broadcast. Mr. Wynne, who is customs officer at Anyox, has been in hospital at Vancouver while on a trip south and he and Mrs. Wynne are expected to pass through the city Sunday evening on the Catala en-route back to the smelter town.

Transferred from here to Brandon in service of the Canadian National Railways, Harold McEwen, who has been district freight and passenger agent of the company here for some time, leaves on this evening's train for the Manitoba centre where he will assume new duties as district freight agent. He will be accompanied by Mrs. McEwen and daughter, Miss Shirley McEwen, the latter leaving her parents at Jasper Park whence she will proceed to Vancouver to resume her studies after spending the Christmas and New Year holiday season visiting here.

Sons of Norway Masquerade, TONIGHT, Oddfellows' Hall at 8:30. Refreshments. Admission 35c. Everybody welcome. 3

Don't forget the Annual Dinner Meeting Chamber of Commerce at 6:30 tonight, Commodore Cafe. Tickets 50c.

Following the marriage at 7:15 this evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lottie Bunn, 931 Ambrose Avenue, of Miss Thelma Bunn and Myles Lemon, the couple will sail on the Princess Adelaide for a honeymoon trip to Vancouver, Victoria and elsewhere in the south, returning here later to take up residence.

Much interest was taken by local bidders yesterday afternoon in the sale of the cargo of the wrecked steamer Prince George and, throughout the afternoon, the auction room was crowded. Very satisfactory prices are reported to have been obtained by Auctioneer George Dawes for a wide variety of articles.

Big Snowslide Delays Train

Obstruction Near Amsbury Holds Up Traffic on Canadian National; Expected to be Clear Today

A large snowslide near Amsbury held up the regular train due from the east at 10 o'clock last night and it was expected this morning to be in at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon. This morning at 6 o'clock the rotary snow plow was sent out to clear the line so that the train could get through. This evening's train, scheduled to leave for the east at 5:30, will not get away until 7 p.m.

The steamer Prince Rupert sailed for Vancouver on time at 10:15 last night without waiting for the train.

Damage of $100 Done by Fire to Eighth Ave. Home

Damage estimated at about $100, on which it was uncertain today as to whether there was insurance coverage, was done by fire at 4:30 a.m. today at the home of William Pawchuk, 641 Eighth Avenue East. The fire is believed to have been caused by a defective chimney. Flames crept up between the walls and did some damage to the kitchen and sitting room. Mrs. Pawchuk and daughter were awakened from sleep by smoke and called the fire department which extinguished the flames by use of chemicals and a garden hose.

Japanese Child Is Dead at Essington

Eiko Sakamoto, Who Had Been Delicate, Passes Away Following Serious Illness

Eiko Sakamoto, eight-year old Japanese child of Port Esington, whose death occurred on New Year's morning at the Skeena River village, was buried there yesterday. The little girl, who had never enjoyed robust health, had been seriously ill for two weeks preceding death. In connection with her death, provincial police officers made a trip with considerable difficulty through the Skeena River ice to Port Essington, it being established that death had been due to natural causes.
