Defeated Grotto Last Night to Take League First Half Honors

In the play-off final for Senior League first half basketball honors, the Moose won over the Grotto last night in an exciting game by a score of 46-44. The play opened fast and the Grotto broke into the lead with Ratchford sinking a few long ones. The Moose overcame the lead and a ding-dong battle was fought until the breather when the Grotto led 21 to 17.

In the second half Mitchell and Wingham ran in some baskets to give the Moose a lead of eight points. The Grotto soon overcame this lead and, with four minutes to go, had a six-point margin. The tobacconists seemed to have the game on ice but the Grotto guards. Morrison and Morgan, let the Moose forwards through to score six points. R. Morrison sank two penalties to cinch the game for the Mitchell and Wingham were outstanding for the Moose while "Buddy" Ratchford and "Ban-jo" Gillis were best for the Grotto. It was first class basketball all through and the teams were evenly matched.

Armstrong and his Canadian Legion team took the Warriors in an Intermediate exhibition game 27-20. The Vets had the situation well in hand at all times. Half time score was 17-10. It was far below the usual thriller that is generally put on by these cagers.

The stars of yesteryear in the Ladies' League put up a brilliant display of hard body checking which almost led to their downfall. The up-and-comings staged a good battle and extended the "has beens" to the limit. Eva Morris and Sue Boddie put on a sideshow for the amusement of the spectators. L. Lowe came on in the second half and led her team to victory, scoring six points. The Morris sisters were the backbone of the opposition. Enyd Morris led the parade with eight points while Lowe garnered six. The losers were robbed of victory as the "old timers" scored four points after full time due to an er-
