MOOSEHEART DAY BANQUET

Special Celebration Last Night With Over 100 Members and Guests Present

Well over a hundred members of the Moose Lodge, together with guests, held their annual Mooseheart Day banquet in the Boston Cabaret last evening. It was a special event, the celebration of the founding of Mooseheart, the child city of the order where some 4000 dependent children have received a high school education and instruction in trades since 1913.

Gillis Royer, dictator of the lodge, presided and a thoroughly enjoyable evening was had by all. Vocal solos were given by J. A. Teng and J. L. Blain who also led the community singing. D. C. Schubert, past dictator, spoke in connection with the operation of Mooseheart and Moosehaven and B. J. Bacon on behalf of the Moose Legion.

Dancing continued until the early hours.

The committee consisted of D. C. Schubert, chairman, A. K. Nelson and Fred Scadden.
