DR. MANDY WAS HEARD

Resident Mining Engineer Gives Lecture Before Large Terrace Gathering

TERRACE, May 9:-On Thursday last Dr. J. T. Mandy, resident mining engineer addressed a well attended meeting of the Board of Trade. In order to accommodate the large number who wished to hear the doctor upon the subject of mining. Mr. Willie placed the comfortable Green Room at Terrace Hotel at their disposal. Dr. Mandy made special reference in his lecture to the subject of "intrusions" and pointed out to possible prospectors that there was hope of finding goldbearing rock in hitherto unprospected ground and within the intrusions themselves.

Altogether, the address was most! instructive and people who, previously, had only the haziest notion about the Pacific Coast batho-! lith, alongside which Terrace stands, came away much enlight-

FILM PLOT

Fredric March, Miriam Hopkins, Helen Mack and George Raft. Starred in "All of Me"

With Fredric March and Miriam Hopkins as products of the Park Avenue social world and George Raft and Heien Mack as graduates of the slum sidewalks, "All of Me," the mid-week feature picture on he screen of the Capitol Theatre here, is a forceful romantic drama of an odd and interesting type.

Miss Hopkins, as a young debutante, wants love and finally learns the difference between her king of romance and real love. March has the part of a college professor-engineer who is in love with Miss Hopkins and wants her Pacific Coast from Area No. 2 up to to go West with him on an enthe end of April this year as com- gineering project.
