Mr. McLaren has resumed the dancing class which in past winters has been a popular feature of the village life of Terrace. These classes are held in the Oddfellows Hall each Friday evening.

Last Monday the Oddfellows installed their officers for the year. There was a banquet and a pieasant social time until a late hour.

The Rebekah Lodge assembled in the Oddfellows' Hall on Wednesday last for a social evning. A whist drive, followed by dancing, was the order.

Monday was nomination day for the forthcoming election of a new Board of Commissioners. All members of the old board were renominated and it seems likely that they will carry on another term. There are five nominations in all.

"Boys' Education" was the subject of an inspiring talk by City Commissioner Alder who urged the importance of education under changing conditions of today along technical or specialized rather than aademic lines. He appealed to such organizations as the Gyro Club and the public at large for co-operation in efforts that might be made to make such specialized education available in Prince Rupert for youths and young men of today who were unable to find employment, many of whom had no special fitting for any particular line of activity.

John Dybhavn, president of the Rotary Club, gave an address along service lines, justifying the existence of such organization as the Rotary and Gyro Clubs in community, national and international af-
