MULLER IS THE GOAT

Archbishop Ludvig Muller, having failed to force the German people to acknowledge him as head of the German Evangelical Church, has been forced to resign. In other words Hitler is right but Muller is wrong. It comes back to something like the British Constitution under which the King can do no wrong. If wrong is done, it is the advisers who are wrong.

Evidently this is the second great mistake of the Nazi government. The first was trying to foment a Nazi rebellion in Austria. In that case as in this Hitler withdrew from the movement when he found it had failed. Other persons were the goats.

No one can say exactly what effect the failure of the attempt to control the religious opinion of the Germans may have. There is no doubt that the people were much disturbed over the Muller experiment. Possibly it may also weaken their faith in Hitler as a political leader. But Hitler still has control and he is known to be absolutely ruthless with those who oppose him. Those who foment discord are said to mysteriously disappear and the fear of being one of those who cannot be found is spreading throughout the nation.

THE GREAT CUNARD

So important an event was the launching of the Queen Mary that the London Times devoted a special number to it and to the interests of the Cunard White Star, owners of the largest fleet of ships on the Atlantic. The illustrations show the big ship as it will be when complete and also in various stages of construction on the ways. It tells of the various subsidiaries which manufactured parts for the ship. It outlines the history of the company. Interesting is the picture of the world's largest graving dock at Southampton which the vessel will use and interesting, too, is the fact that while the big new ship was constructed on the Clyde, the propellers were made on the Thames where the world's best propellers have all been manufactured.

The Cunard and White Star companies are now under one control with nearly 600,000 tons of shipping. Regular services are maintained to the United States and Canada from London, Southampton, Liverpool, Cobh, Galway, Belfast, Glasgow, Cherbourg and Hayre. All those qualities of service and efficiency upon which the tradition and reputation of the two great shipping companies have been built for nearly a century are now combined for the benefit of their patrons.

CELEBRATION AT AIYANSH

Visit of Church Army Officers Is Event of Importance at Naas River Village

AIYANSH, Nov. 2:—Capt. Hutchinson and Capt. Hanney, Church Army visitors from England, were given a great reception during a recent visit to Aiyansh, the event being one of much importance in local church history. The occasion was marked by special proceedings of various forms.

Capt. Adams took a boat down the river to meet the two visiting officers upon whose arrival the whole community turned out to extend a welcome. Local officers of the Church Army and the Army band led a procession to the Church Hall where an address of welcome was read by the rector, Rev. S. Kinley, after which the visitors were invited to a wedding party.

In the evening a service was held in the Church Army Hall with an attendance of three hundred crowding the hall to the doors.

The following day there was a gathering in the village hall under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary, a service being held in the evening. Again all the people of the village attended.

Next day the Young People's Society was host to the visitors with a supper in the Hall.

Saturday being a half holiday, there was a sports program with football, baseball, lacrosse, basketball and foot races, the two captains joining in all the sports with real good sportsmanship. In the evening a general sacred concert was held in the Church Army Hall, the entertainment being a splendid one. Those taking part included the Church Army sisters, Capt. Adams with bass solos, Capt. Hanney with accordion solos, Miss Ruth Adams, Miss Winnie Davies and Mrs. Johnson with vocal solos and the Church Army officers.

Each day they were here Capt. Hutchinson and Capt. Hanney held services for the children.

Many people turned out on the river bank to farewell the officers when they departed for Greenville.

JUBILEE AT KITSEGUKLA

Fiftieth Anniversary of Bringing Of Gospel is Observed

KITSEGUKLA, Nov. 2:—An epoch in the history of missions to the native people was commemorated on the Skeena River on October 20 and 21 when the jubilee year of the bringing of the Gospel Message by the Methodist Church to Kitsegukla was celebrated. The village, gay with arches of welcome, flags and Chinese lanterns, erected by different societies, was a pleasing sight to visitors from the neighboring villages of Kispiox, Hazelton, Kitwanga and Kitwanoon when, led by the local band and their hosts, they paraded the streets preliminary to marching to a meeting on the river bank where the opening part of the day's program was held. On this site Rev. William Henry Pierce, the first missionary, landed in 1884 and it was a great disappointment to everyone that, at the last moment, sickness and advancing age prevented his presence. His place was taken by Peter Milton, one of the first converts, who gave a resume of what took place so long ago and described the environment and customs of the time. Only two other converts of the first year survive—Mrs. Peter Milton and Mrs. Simideeks, and these ladies sang a hymn with clear tuneful voices. It was difficult to believe they had learned it from Mr. Pierce so many years ago.

The different village organizations gave a splendid feast in the evening, the tables being loaded with good things. Speeches of appreciation and instruction were given by James Ryan, Kitwanga; Chief Ernest Weehah, Kitwanoon; Tom Campbell, Hazelton; Henry Russell, Glen Vowell; Walter Scoultz, Kispiox; Peter Mark, president of Epworth League; Arthur Sampare, president of Kitsegukla Band; Moses Jones, president of Council; David Williams, vice-president Athletic Club; Mrs. Moses Jones, president Woman's Missionary Society, and Alfred McDames, local preacher.

The evening was made the more enjoyable by the band playing a popular selection of music exceedingly well and by the antics of a dozen or so boys and girls who impersonated a Chinese troop, their make-up and acting being really clever and amusing.

Sunday Services

Sunday was given to worship and praise. Services continued throughout the day, being marked with fervor and blessing, to which the choirs of the United Church of Kitsegukla, the Anglican Church of Kitwanga and the local corps of the Salvation Army contributed not a little with beautiful anthems.

Over fifty people partook of Holy Communion at an early service.

Washday Drudgery Disappears . . .

at the snap of a switch with an

ELECTRIC Clothes Washer

It's old-fashioned to toil over a washboard—ruining your hands, ruining your health, ruining fabrics. Wash the easy way. An electric washer is easy to buy and amazingly cheap to operate, 10 cents will pay for the current used for a month by the average family. Take a Northern Electric ABC Electric Washer for instance. You can have one for a small down payment with the balance spread over two years. It's paid for before you know it and all the while you have been freed from the chains of washday slavery.
