made. George W. Nickerson said hej was glad to say a few words for Olof Hanson and his work at Ottawa. The Canadian Halibut Vessel Owners' Association felt that he had done things for them which were of considerable value. For a member in opposition Mr. Hanson had done excellent work. In the next House with a Liberal Government in power he would be able to give entire satisfaction, he felt. Among the measures put through had been one for allowing fishermen to count fishing service as experience in getting navigation papers. Hitherto service on any little tug boat was counted as more value than fishing. Another important matter was the reduction in rates on carrying autos to and from Vancouver. It took a private interview with Mr. Hungerford to secure action.

Frank Hart said he felt Mr. Han-! son had done better than anyone else at Ottawa. If Hanson were not renominated, it should, at any rate, be some one with a stake in the country. Most other politicians had left as soon as they were defeated.

Howard Campbell said Stewart Liberals were 100 percent behind Olof Hanson. At their meeting Friday they had decided to back him to the full.

T. Ross McKay said from what he had heard of Mr. Hanson at Ottawa he was noted for his fairmindedness and efficiency. He Mr. McKay, had left the Liberal party when he felt it was straying from Liberalism but, in forsaking The city team billiard champion- the party for a time, he had got a
