Halibut Fishing in Area No. Two Closing on August 19, It Is Announced by Commission

SEATTLE, Aug. 2: (CP)—The International Fisheries Commission announces the closing of Area No. 2 between the Washington coast and Cape Spencer, Alaska, in which most of the smaller Canadian vessels operate, to all halibut fishing effective midnight August 19 because of heavy catches as a result of which the quota for the season will soon be exhausted. Officials said that the closure would probably be effective until the end of the year.

Fishing will be permitted to continue in Area No. 3, the other principal fishing district of the Pacific
