SEES NO WAR YET

Acting Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin of Great Britain sees no immediate prospect of war but he does see danger in the armaments race and he urges the nations of Europe to change their policies and assume a more peaceful attitude.

The difficulty in connection with the speech is that, while a copy was sent to Chancellor Adolph Hitler of Germany, only as much as he wishes published will reach the press of that country. The press is controlled absolutely by Hitler, just as it is controlled in Italy by Mussolini, and the people of the country are allowed to know only such things as suit his policy.

What is particularly interesting about Mr. Baldwin's speech is the indication that Britain is using every effort to bring about a more peaceable condition of mind among European nations.

PLEASE —DON'T LET THE KIDDIES SUFFER FROM WHOOPING COUGH ~and CROUP

Just give them Buckley's mixed with equal parts honey and you'll be astonished and delighted to see how quickly those terrifying coughing spells are relieved, and the vomiting reduced or stopped entirely. Same applies to croup. Buckley's relieves the congestion and constriction of the larynx almost instantly, and soon the little sufferer is sleeping soundly. Buckley's is entirely different—it is so superior to anything you have ever tried for coughs, colds, 'flu and bronchitis. Play safe. Refuse substitutes. Buckley's is sold everywhere. M-6

CONCERT IS ENJOYABLE

Musical Program and Play at First Baptist Church Proved Pleasing

First Baptist Church was well filled Thursday evening when a concert was presented under the auspices of the teachers of the Sunday school. The program was one of outstanding merit, each number being well received. A vocal quartet consisting of Misses Betty Cameron, Beatrice Berner, Betty Wood and Marcel Jabour proved pleasing. Master David Houston also sang in his usual acceptable manner. Mrs. R. G. Large and J. E. Davey gave vocal solos and a quartet from the Ladies' Music Club comprising Mesdames J. H. McLeod, S. D. Johnstone, Robert Blance and C. E. Cullin evoked encores from the audience. Miss Zelda Hale, the young elocutionist, made humorous contributions to the program. Complimentary remarks were heard from all sides on the numbers presented by the Junior Symphony Orchestra under Bert Cameron's leadership.

The second part of the program was a presentation of a Biblical drama by the Baptist Players entitled "The Centurion's Servant." This was well received and seemed to make a deep impression on those present which fact proved the able manner in which the players acted their parts. The cast was as follows:

Marcellus (a soldier), H. M. Daggett; Caius (a soldier), M. R. Dafoe; Tirzah (a servant), Mrs. Alma Glass; Drusilla (wife of Junius), Miss K. Watson; Joanna (wife of King's Steward), Mrs. H. Berg; Junius (King's Centurion), P. H. Linzey; Gyas (a slave), Allan Hale; Joseph (a Jewish Rabbi), V. G. Houston; Hermas (a physician), J. C. Gilker.

The play was directed by Victor G. Houston.

A pianoforte solo by Miss Ruth Nelson was very creditably rendered and received hearty applause. The accompanists for the evening were Mrs. J. S. Black, Mrs. J. C. Gilker, Mrs. E. Smith and Mr. Allen.

CLINICAL TESTS OF THALATTOL NEW MEDICINAL PRODUCT.

has a higher vitamin potency than the original Thalattol and it is believed that the clinical tests now in progress will be even more satisfactory than those carried out last term. A new investigator has been secured to assist in the work in the person of Dr. H. O. Johnsen, who is making a thorough examination of the children's teeth, and this extra information should add considerably to the value of the results."

As already announced, a local syndicate is interesting itself in the possibility of manufacturing Thalattol here commercially.
