YOUR HIDDEN TROUBLE
Incomplete elimination of body wastes tends to a far greater extent than is generally realized to suffer from this condition. Incomplete elimination is why you often feel weak and weary, suffer headaches and indigestion. The sure way to correct this condition is to follow the Andrews Rules of Health. Eat moderately. Get enough sleep, fresh air, and exercise to satisfy your body—and, once or twice each week take a bracing, sparkling glass of Andrews Liver Salt. Andrews Liver Salt will keep you in the pink of condition by helping Nature to keep your system in thorough working order. Your druggist sells Andrews in tins at 5c and 10c and the new, large bottle, 75c. Sole Agents: John A. Huston Co., Ltd., Toronto.

IN MEMORIAM
TORONTO, Ontario—In loving memory of my dearly beloved Uncle, Elias Emdid, pioneer confectioner, who passed away in the far off soils of Prince Rupert, May 25th, 1933.
Life is but a golden chain. Death tries to part but all in vain. Our thoughts drift to scenes long past. Though I do not know you uncle dear, but love, devotion and memories, still cling treasurely in letters of the past.
Sadly missed by a loving niece, EVA.

program were Mrs. H. N. Brocklesby, R. E. James and J. A. Teng, with vocal solos, and G. Fogarty with mystifying card tricks. Community singing of the wartime songs under J. S. Wilson were reminiscences of France. Mr. Wilson also thanked the artists for their help and the speakers for their encouraging and complimentary remarks.

A buffet supper was served and later a dance was carried on to a late hour. Al Small, with William Reid and William Bacon, provided splendid music for the dance. Mrs. J. S. Black was accompanist for soloists.

In the course of the dance a telegram was read from Col. S. D. Johnston with the message "Well done Legion" and expressing regrets at his inability to be present.
