WHIFFLETS
From the Waterfront

C. N. R. steamer Prince George, Capt. H. E. Nedden, which was in port from 8:45 yesterday morning to 1 o'clock in the afternoon in the course of her first voyage of the season to Alaska, had a capacity list of passengers, most of whom were round trip passengers. The vessel is due back next Monday from Skagway and other northern points enroute to Vancouver.

Constable Putland of Ocean Falls reports to district headquarters of the provincial police here having picked up with the provincial police power cruiser P. M. L. 9 the disabled Seattle cruiser Umpqua, belonging to Dr. R. W. Miller of Pasadena. The Umpqua, which was coming north on an Alaskan cruise, was towed into Namu for repairs.

At 8:17 this morning there was a zero low tide here, a marine occurrence which takes place only once or twice each year. Actually, however, there will be an even lower tide than this next month when -0.1 will be recorded. There was also a rather exceptional high tide of 22.8 feet at 1:28 this morning although this was exceeded on January 16 and 17 last with 23.4 feet.
