PRINCESS REFLOATS

Local Salvage Boat Freed From Grenville Channel Reef

As a result of her stranding late last week near the entrance of Union Passage in Grenville Channel. the Armour Salvage Co.'s power tug Salvage Princess lost her false keel and her keel is also believed damaged although the vessel is making no water and her hull is not damaged, it is thought.

With her own engine and winch power on a couple of blocks and the assistance of the power tugs Pachena and Jedway. the Salvage Princess was refloated at midnight Saturday from the reef where she stranded on the high tide Thursday night. She then proceeded into Union Pass to pick up a tow of logs for delivery to the Georgetown box factory at Big Bay north of here. She is expected to return here this. evening from Georgetown.

The Pachena and the Jedway returned to port Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

FIGHTING OF CRIME

Both President and Chief Justice of United States Appeal for Public Assistance

WASHINGTON D.C., May 14-Stirred by the apparently increasing cirme wave throughout the country, both President Franklin D. Roosevelt and Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes appealed at the end of the week to law-abiding citizens and organizations to lend their aid in combatting crime. President Roosevelt urged the American Bar Association to exert its influence with a view to waring the criminal code so amended to meet the increasingly serious situation.

"A robust civil sentiment and sense of justice" on the part of the public would go far towards deterring crime. Chief Justice Hughes declared. Meantime Attorney General Cummings has intimated that he will ask Congress for a further large appropriation with which to
