MANY HOME RUNS MADE

No Less Than Twenty-Four Circuit Clouts Yesterday in Majors

NEW YORK, April 19: (CP)—Twenty-four home runs were made in Big League baseball games yesterday, 13 in the National League and 11 in the American. Jimmy Foxx of the Philadelphia Athletics drove out two homers and Babe Ruth made his first hit of the year — also a home run. Chuck Klein of the Chicago Cubs hit his second homer in two days.

In the National League Chicago Cubs and the world champion New York Giants won again over the Cincinnati Reds and Phillies respectively to remain unbeaten.

In the American League the Detroit Tigers and Washington Senators made it two straight wins respectively over the Chicago White Sox and Boston Red Sox respectively.

Yesterday's Big League scores:

SPORT CHAT

The local football fraternity is beginning to bestir itself, what with all signs of spring in the air and softball and baseball already started, and prospects are for another interesting season in 1934 for the ancient and honorable soccer sport. There is believed to be plenty of talent on hand but the success of the season's activities will, undoubtedly, depend to large extent upon how it is organized. A meeting of the executive of the Prince Rupert Football Association is to be held tonight and the probability is that a general meeting of the association will be called for next week.

ANOTHER CHALLENGE

The Port Simpson softball team challenges the Elks, champions of the City of Prince Rupert, to a softball game to be played Sunday, April 22 at 2 p.m.
