Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.
Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.
Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

Alleged Conspirators in Montreal

Two of the many Nova Scotians charged in the alleged rum ring conspiracy are shown arriving in Montreal with their lawyers. Left to right, L. A. Ryan and L. A. Forsythe, K.C., counsel for the accused men, Colin Chisholm and Thomas Young. The four Brantford brothers have already appeared in court and released on bail set at over $400,000.

ST. PETER'S XMAS TREE

Largest Sunday School in City Has Annual Entertainment With 250 Persons Present

The parish hall of St. Peter's Anglican Church, Seal Cove, was crowded to the doors last night with an attendance of 250 persons when the annual Christmas Tree entertainment of the Sunday School of that church took place. Although St. Peter's is the smallest church in the city, it, however, boasts the largest Sunday School in Prince Rupert.

An excellent program was presented by the children after which Santa Claus arrived on the scene to distribute gifts and sweets for all. W. B. Skinner, superintendent of the Sunday School, conducted the opening proceedings after which Canon W. F. Rushbrook took charge, presiding over the program which included a song by five boys - Bob Taylor, George McAfee, Norman Sivert, Archie McLeod and Jim Taylor; Scotch dance by Helen McDonald and Jean Smith; recitations by Hector Macdonald, Ole Skog, Alice Barbe and Dorothy Peachy; illustrated Japanese action songs by Junior Club girls; costume songs by Mrs. W. B. Skinner's and Miss Dorothy Rushbrook's classes; dancing in costume by Japanese girls; minstrel songs by four boys including Bob Taylor and Jimmy Taylor; songs by Jean McAfee and Dorothy Smith, and dialogue by the Bible Class.

Boy Scouts And Girl Guides Did Good Xmas Work

The seventh annual toy repair hop conducted by the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides finished up its Christmas work this week with distribution of over 160 toys, dolls, books, games, etc. among 28 local families with 35 children. The dolls were repaired and pressed by the Girl Guides. The activities were under the direction of Scoutmaster P. C. Miller.

Thanks are due especially to those members of Toc H who helped in repairing the toys, etc. Q. & S. Grocery, Fire Chief Morrison for collecting and receiving the articles. Ormes Limited, the management of the Capitol Theatre, Kurulok's Transfer, also to all those who donated the toys, etc. and helped the Scouts do their annual good turn.

Christmas Eve Dance by Moose Club Enjoyable

Among the many Christmas Eve functions in the city was a dance by members of the Moose Club in the Moose Hall, about two hundred persons being in attendance at the affair which was most enjoyable. Excellent music was furnished by Carl Smith's Orchestra and James Taylor was master of ceremonies. Balloons and novelties added to the merriment which kept up from 10 p.m. until 2:30 a.m. T. O. Morgan was chairman of the committee in charge.
