We are glad that Mr. Bennett stood firm on this policy.

WORK, WAGES AND THE NORTH

Under the heading "Work, Wages and the North," the Financial News of Vancouver strongly advocated the extension of the Bear River road at Stewart into Maziadin Lake, the same to be done as a needed public work and also to provide work for the unemployed of Stewart and Prince Rupert. It is pointed out that the road would open up a valuable mining country.

Other interests would have the road past the Premier Mine opened up in order to give access to mining properties already partly developed.

Prince Rupert wants work done on the highway which would give them access to the vast interior. In every direction there is work to be done and men to do it. Each district has its pet scheme but the whole country between Prince Rupert and Jasper is a unit in demanding the completion of the northern highway which would connect Prince Rupert with Edmonton.

We are heartily in accord with the idea of continuation of the Bear River Road from Stewart. It is a worthy project and, doubtless, will receive attention. We urge the people of that town to keep after it until it is completed. If there had been as much interest taken in road building in Prince Rupert, especially during the past few years, as Stewart is taking today in trying to get that Bear River Road, we might have had a great deal more work done out beyond Cloyah Bay.

BANKING CREDIT AVAILABLE

Commercial loans in Canada, it is sometimes suggested, have shown a declining trend through restriction of credit by the chartered banks. The truth is that more banking credit is available than those directing sound enterprises are able or willing to employ.

This bank has not in the past, and does not today, withhold credit for legitimate and sound purposes.

It has had, and it has today, ample resources from which it is prepared to make loans.

Enquiries are invited at any one of its 364 offices throughout Canada.
