A SPLENDID TESTIMONIAL

It was a splendid testimonial to Rev. Dr. Hugh Grant J. that the congregation of his church at Fort William gave John Bulger vs. S. D. Macconald him on the occasion of his resignation. After eight years from Tuesday night's fixture have of service he was given a retiring allowance of $100 a month. It spoke much louder than the written testimonial that went with it. Actions always speak louder than words.

MARKETING VERY IMPORTANT

While producing is very important in the general scheme of things, marketing is almost equally as important. It is the week-end basketball series useless for farmers to raise crops if the crops cannot be sold at a profit.

Owing to the huge distances and the high freight rates, farmers have been handicapped more in Central British Columbia than in any other part of Canada in their efforts so they will be out to try and avto get their products to market. Last year an effort was enge those defeats. The Ladies' All made to provide a remedy and this year the effort is being Stars went up and came back two followed up with a view to getting the farmers the best possible prices in the easiest possible manner.

The legislature is to deal with enforced co-operation during the present session with a view to preventing the breaking up of the efforts of farmers and fruit growers all in the Anyox basketball party. by interests that are opposed to co-operative efforts. What the law will be no one can tell but if it will help the farmer it will help the whole country, as long as the farmers avoid cloke and H. Simpson, Mesdames going to extremes, like the wheat pool did on the prairies W. Phillips and L. H. Wenerstrom a few days ago.

SPORT CHAT

Keen interest is being taken in with Anyox, the senior and ladies' teams from the smelter town arriving last night on the Prince Rupert. Last year the C. N. R. A. made a trip to Anyox and lost both games NEW games to the bad. So we should see some good games down here tonight and Saturday.

There are twenty-six persons in They are Misses T. Gordon, M. mon, J. Pinckney, P. Louden M. and R. Swanson, L. Falconer, A. Calderone, F. Calderone, E. Woodman, F. Dodsworth, S. Steele, J. Currie D. Gillies, D. McLeod, C. Dresser, A Gawthorne, P. Chenoski, J. Pinckney and L. Higham.

As a result of a victory over the Montreal Maroons Sunday night, the Chicago Black Hawks were again in exclusive possession of second place in the American Dvision of the National Hockey League ahead of the New York Rangers who were idle over the week-end. Tuesday and Thursday nights' games resulted in no further change is this standing. Last Saturday night the Toronto Maple Leafs, who have einched first place honors in the International Division, won over Detroit Red Wings in a free-scoring game. As the Red Wings are pretty well assured of the American Division first place, significance may or may not attach itself to this game in relation to the forthcoming post-season play-offs.
