Local Naval Unit Greatly Improved

High Praise Voiced by Commander C. J. Beard R. C. N. After Conducting Inspection

Commander C. J. Beard R. C. N. of Ottawa, director of naval reserves for Canada, who left on last evening's train for Edmonton and Saskatoon enroute back to Ottawa after a visit of several days here, during his stay in Prince Rupert, conducted an inspection of the local unit of the Royal Canadian Naval Reserve of which Lieut. Walter Hume is commanding officer. Commander Beard saw the local unit go thoroughly through its paces and, following the inspection, made the statement that it had improved beyond all recognition since his last visit here four years ago.

Louis Locker, well known district logging operator, and Mrs. Locker left on last evening's train for Edmonton where the latter will receive medical treatment.
