ANOTHER SLIGHT ON PRINCE RUPERT

Today is the day set for the home-coming of Mr. S. M. Newton. It is safe to say that there will be no brass bands or cheering crowds at the wharf to acclaim the returning alderman. Nevertheless, the Prince Rupert candidate for the Conservative nomination fought well to secure the honor for his city, if all reports are true.

The rejection of Mr. Newton by the Conservative Convention in favor of a candidate who lives outside the constituency, is one more slight upon Prince Rupert, of a piece with the mutilation of our city charter and the general policy of making Prince Rupert tag round at the heels of the Victoria politicians.

In his announcement, Mr. Newton said that one of his chief objects in offering himself was because he felt that the time had come when this constituency should be represented at Ottawa by someone who lived within its borders. That he should have been rejected in favor of "Mr. Clements of Vancouver" is a mortification that citizens of Prince Rupert of all parties may share in. It is a slight on Prince Rupert.

Although it has been stated in the despatches that Mr. Clements at one time lived in Prince Rupert, only three persons have yet been discovered in the city who know the gentleman, and none of them are at all enthusiastic about the gentleman's fitness to represent Comox-Atlin at Ottawa.

The tub thumping of the Empire against the reciprocity agreement has obviously been very difficult work. Now that the tub thumping must be done on behalf of "Mr. Clements of Vancouver" instead of for a Comox-Atlin man, it will probably become even more distasteful to that journal and its editor.

NOTES DUE

One of the most useful articles in the editorial rooms of the Daily News is the W. P. B., or waste paper basket. There is nothing we consign to it with better grace than a letter received without the signature of the writer. Yesterday we received one such signed "A Ratepayer" and if the writer does not send along his name and address his letter though very interesting will certainly find its way into the W. P. B.

It is one of the unwritten laws in the newspaper arena that all letters to the paper must bear the correct signature of the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a guarantee of good faith.

Professor Dr. Stalker of Aberdeen, Scotland, who is at present touring the west addressed the Calgary Canadian club the other day. Professor Stalker is very enthusiastic over Canada.

He said he was surprised to see the remarkable growth of such cities as Calgary and Vancouver, during the past few years. The increase was more than such large Scottish cities as Glasgow, Edinburgh, Aberdeen and others could boast of. The reason of this was that these cities had been supplying Western Canada with a large number of immigrants. These immigrants were the cream of Scotland. Scotland was sending her best sons, and what was their loss was Canada's gain.

WILL HOLD FIRST ANNIVERSARY

NEW MACHINERY FOR LAUNDRY

Pioneer Laundry Has Installed Much New Sanitary Machinery—This City Now Has Best and Biggest Laundry North of Vancouver.

Prince Rupert can now boast of the largest, most up to date and most sanitary laundry north of Vancouver. Within the last few months, Mr. Otto Nelson, proprietor of the Pioneer Laundry, has spent close on ten thousand dollars to make his laundry second to none in this province. This big sum of money has provided an extension to the building, has installed the very latest machinery known to the laundry world besides providing for other necessary modern improvements.

And it is worth while to note that none but white people are employed in the Pioneer Laundry and that the weekly payroll there totals $500.

One of the finest pieces of machinery that has been added is an electric bleacher, which does away with the old way of using chloride of lime for bleaching clothes—and incidentally destroying them. The new machine prepares a disinfectant bleach by electricity and when ready for use it is guaranteed not to destroy the clothes. The preparing process is more sanitary than the old way. This is a feature that is found in no other laundry north of Vancouver and is sure to appeal to people who are tired of having their clothes spoiled at other laundries.

Sanitary collar, cuff, neckband, and all kinds of ironing machines which does better work than done by hand have just been installed at a great expense as well as the latest self disinfecting washing machines.

There are lots of other interesting things about this up to date laundry and if you are interested in machinery it would be a treat for you to go and see it.

PEEVISH GIRLS

The maddest girl I have ever seen I saw today on the subway route; She dropped a cent in a slot machine, And nary a bit of gum came out. —New York Globe

The maddest girl I have ever seen Bought a brand new gown, the price was big; She rode down town in her limousine, And saw a neighbor in the same darn rig. —Milwaukee Journal

The maddest girl I have ever seen Was the maddest ever seen till yet, She wore a bathing suit, gold and green, And a wave splashed up and the suit got wet. —Houston Post

The maddest girl I have ever seen Had a foolish quarrel with her beau; He left and didn't come back, I ween, To tell her that he loved her so. —Birmingham Age-Herald

The maddest girl I have ever seen Was one who could not put on her shoes; To tell the reason seems downright mean— Her size was seven, but she bought twos. —Springfield (Mass.) Union
