UNEMPLOYED HAVE SHOW

Music, Wrestling and Boxing on Entertainment Fare Last Night

An enjoyable entertainment including musical numbers, boxing and wrestling was held by the unemployed in the Canadian Labor Defence League Hall last night, there being a large attendance.

Among the entertainers were Tom Carr, with comic sketches and vocal solos, J. Oakham with vocal solos, Miss Zeida Hale, with recitations, Vernon Rowe, Pete Hardy, J. Carroll and Mrs. Wagner with comic orchestral numbers, Jim Tardy with vocal solos, E. Wall and J. Tardy with harmonica and tambourine selections, Miss Alice Gomez and Vernon Rowe with violin duets, accompanied by Mrs. Wagner, harmonica selections by E. Wall and songs in Ukrainian by Katie Kurolok.

A couple of wrestling bouts proved very exciting as there was plenty of action. Jim Tardy (the Canadian Bear) finished off J. Oakham of Vancouver with a stranglehold in one of the squirming matches while E. Makkela took the winning fall from P. Tereberg in an exhibition of Graeco-Roman wrestling. P. Tereberg refereed one bout and Max Crossman the other.

In boxing Mina White and Ruby Gomez sparred three rounds as did Axel Dahl and Teddy Allen. Marvin Rowe and O. Carlson were seen in barrel boxing. Also in barrel boxing June Gomez issued a challenge which was answered by D. Michluk.

The presence of two clowns enlivened the proceedings.
