CUTTING VALUE IN TWO

Member of Audit Bureau of Circulations

The value of the American gold dollar will be practically sliced in two if the recommendations of President Roosevelt is accepted by the United States Congress. Nobody knows just what effect this will have upon the purchasing value of the dollar, particularly in view of the fact that it is almost impossible to get a gold dollar today, all monetary transactions being carried out in paper money. If were the referees. gold is not in circulation, why should paper money be affected by changing the value of the gold coins?

It is just possible that as soon as the coinage has all been debased it will be issued to the public and used as currency once more and we shall again be able to get what is sup- ato (12), Murray, Montesano (2), night's Billiard League fixture posed to be United States gold coin but it will be gold of the debased variety.

OLD TIMERS PASSING

With the age of Prince Rupert closely approaching the quarter of a century it is natural that the men and women who helped to found the city should be rapidly passing. Among these was E. H. Mortimer, whose end came so suddenly yesterday. He was not of the spectacular type but was a man of sterling worth, as keen in the interests of Kach. Brand, M. Morris. those he served as when serving himself. His passing leaves another gap in the long list of pioneers.

AN IMPORTANT GATHERING

Tomorrow will see the opening of one of the most important conferences that has ever been held in Canada smith (2), J. Morrison, Santerhane. insofar as its relation to the west is concerned. The premiers from all the provinces of Canada have been called together by Premier Bennett at the request of Premier Pattullo and at that conference will be discussed several new proposals, the adoption or rejection of which will have a far reaching effect on the future of the Dominion.

So far as known only the western premiers have endor- warriors vs. High School; Cardinsed the proposals but they found them so reasonable and advantageous that they were able in one day to reach unanimity so that they could approach the east with some hope of getting what they were after.
