CONDITIONS IMPROVING

George Laidler Says Spirit of Optimism Prevails Everywhere in South Both in B.C. and U.S.

Everywhere in the south there are signs of improvement in business conditions and optimism as to the future, according to George W. Laidler, local manager of W. H. Malkin Co. Ltd., who returned Sunday from a visit in the south. He went as far as Tia Juana in Mexico and was in Los Angeles at the time of the floods. In Los Angeles about six thousand men had been put to work clearing up the debris left by the flood and as many more at other points.

In Vancouver Mr. Laidler was closely in touch with the business interests and he says conditions have improved and everyone is expecting greater improvement in the very near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Laidler travelled by bus from Vancouver to Tia Juana and back, making the run by easy stages.
