Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.

Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.

Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

A Pair of Kings and a Queen

QUEEN MARIE KING BORIS KING CAROL

Not often is the camera allowed to get so close to royalty as in this case during hunting trip of King Boris of Bulgaria and King Carol of Roumania in the Carpathians. Queen Marie, Carol's mother, well known to Americans, is wishing the royal huntsmen good luck.

Latest in Streamlined Trains

Here is the latest thing in streamlining—a train. It belongs to the Union Pacific railway and is shown here passing through one of the huge pipe sections being used in the construction of the Boulder Dam at Las Vegas, Nevada.
