STEVENS URGES BIG BUILDING PLAN

INDIA COMMITTEE PRESENTS ITS REPORT TO PARLIAMENT

Canada Could Wisely Expend Billion Dollars Within Few Years On Needed Construction Work

Federal Government's $40,000,000 Program Described As Mere Drop in Bucket—Would Call Bankers and Financial Men Together

OTTAWA, Nov. 21: (CP)—With the declaration that during the next few years Canada could wisely and economically spend more than a billion dollars in housing and commercial construction works, Hon. H. H. Stevens, former minister of trade and commerce, last night went on record as favoring a great building program for the Dominion. He characterized the federal government's $40,000,000 building program as a mere drop in the bucket and advocated calling a conference of bankers, loan and mortgage companies and insurance companies with a view to evolving a plan for financing a huge construction proposal.

"If they fail to act promptly then in my opinion the government of hand as a government policy. A national program of construction Canada ought to take the matter in ought to be financed by private capital under public leadership," Mr. Stevens asserted. The former minister of trade and commerce was guest speaker at a banquet of the Ottawa Junior Board of Trade.

Mooney Wins First Victory in Years

Tom Mooney (left), noted U.S. labor prisoner, is pictured with James B. Holden, warden of San Quentin prison, Calif., who was ordered by the U.S. supreme court to show cause in 40 days as to why Mooney should not be allowed to file a petition of habeas corpus. The action is a preliminary step (and the first legal victory) in the 18-year fight for freedom. Mooney was sentenced to life imprisonment on charges of complicity in the San Francisco Preparedness parade bombing of 1916.

LABORITES INDIGNANT

German Plan to Give Finished Textile Products For American Cotton Protested

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—Indignation is expressed by officials of United Textile Workers' Union at the proposal of Germany to exchange German-finished textile goods for half a million bales of American raw cotton. Such purchase of finished textile products would deprive United States workers of a large amount of fair wages. The American Federation of Labor, through its president, William Green, intimates that Congress will be urged to pass legislation at the forthcoming session which would make such a transaction as this illegal.

"Liberalism is Great Need Of Today But Party Has to Make Good," Declares Ian M'Kenzie

HON. IAN MACKENZIE

VICTORIA, Nov. 21: (CP)—"Liberalism is the great need of the day. We are the progressive party of the centre. The Liberal party will soon have its greatest opportunity and, if it fails to enact legislation for the benefit of the great masses of the people, then, in my opinion, it will have lost its last opportunity."

So declared Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Vancouver Centre Member of Parliament, in addressing the Liberal nominating convention here at which C. J. Dowell was chosen Liberal candidate for Victoria in the next federal election.

"We are going through a social and economic revolution. Liberalism must change with the times and go ahead," declared Capt. Mackenzie.

Present at the nominating convention was Capt. William Ellis, who has returned to the Liberal party after having run as a C. C. F. candidate in the last provincial election. Capt. Ellis voted at the convention.
