IS REPLETE WITH STARS

Notable Cast Assembled for "Dinner At Eight" This Week-End at Capitol Theatre
 With a cast of prominent stars such as been seldom assembled for one picture, "Dinner at Eight," said to be one of the greatest pieces of motion picture entertainment of all time, comes to the Capitol Theatre here as the week-end feature. The cast includes Marie Dressler, John Barrymore, Wallace Beery, Jean Harlow, Lionel Barrymore, Lee Tracy, Edmund Lowe, Billie Burke, Madge Evans, Jean Herscholt, Karen Morley, Louis Closser Hale, Phillips Holmes and May Robson, all of whom are stars of first magnitude in their own right.
 The episodic narrative is said to offer each of the celebrities in the cast a meaty role. The story has enough plots and sub-plots to furnish separate narratives which are cleverly interwoven until one great climax is reached in which the majority of the characters are brought together.
 Lionel Barrymore plays the part of a shipbuilding magnate, Billie

Burke is his wife, Madge Evans, his daughter, Marie Dressler appears as a retired trouper, John Barrymore as a "has been" movie star, Lee Tracy, his scheming agent, Jean Herscholt, an affluent theatrical producer, Wallace Beery, a business racketeer, Jean Harlow, his young wife, and Edmund Lowe, a philandering physician.

Porter Singer, a former resident of Massett and now located at Vancouver, came north on the Prince John this week to Massett to pay a visit there with his brother, Wesley Singer.

Why an Easy?

Scores of different washers are on the market. Scores of others have come and gone. Not one employs the same principle they used ten years ago—Easy excepted. Cylinder, Oscillator, Dolly, Agitator are all obsolete today. The Easy Co. has used and developed the vacuum cup principle for 57 years. All others force the clothes through the water.
Easy forces the water through the clothes. There's a difference.

A factory representative will be with us during the week. Easy Washers and Easy Ironers will be demonstrated. Call for demonstration. Your presence will be appreciated.
