A well contested game between the Regiment and the Canadian The Moose Lodge has dropped Football League resulted in a win in the Lacies' Softball League and went through to add a second for season's honors. .667 the Regiment. Lokken and Parkes 333 made ground and Palmer went 250 close. Sam Currie and Baptie both had good tries but Morgan was safe. Campbell and Armstrong had openings but the ball was scrambled Played Thursday away. Comadina crossed a dangeraway. Comadina crossed a danger- in fifth, rain). vies cleared.

> For the first of the second half the Legion pressed but their forwards found the soldiers' defence hard to beat and Morgan was not severely tested. Hill, Edgcumbe and Wingham were breaking up the Legion attacks and the Regiment forwards were always the more dangerous. Mitchell added a third from a penalty and Lindsay a fourth with a fine shot. Morgan saved well from Comadina and Lokken and Fitzsimmons were nearly through but Davies came to the rescue. Currie sent Palmer ahead but he was stopped and then the Regiment took control of the game and continued pressing till the end but Pierce saved all that
