UNITED STATES EMBARGO ON SILVER

LONGSHOREMEN'S STRIKE SITUATION STILL IN DEADLOCK

Export of White Metal Forbidden Except Upon Special Gov't. Licence

Activities of International Speculators Responsible For Sudden Decree, Secretary of Treasury Explains—Vancouver Shipment Affected

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 30: (CP)—Henry Morgenthau, Secretary of the Treasury, with the approval of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, has placed an embargo on further exports of silver except by licence. The suddenness of the embargo, Secretary Mongenthau explained, arose from receipt of information that international speculators were making large shipments of the metal to indefinite foreign destinations. He cited a shipment billed to London or Bombay and another from Shanghai to Vancouver and return.

Shipment at Vancouver

VANCOUVER, June 30: (CP)—A shipment of $200,000 worth of silver which arrived here on the Empress of Japan on June 20 booked for New York but which was held here will probably be shipped back to Shanghai on the Empress of Japan today.

Triplet Girls At Three Rivers

Mrs. Phileas Bourassa of Quebec Gives Birth to Trio of Daughters

THREE RIVERS, Que., June 30:—Three baby daughters were born to Mrs. Phileas Bourassa here. Mother and triplets are all reported to be doing well.

Stillborn Revolution Put Down by Hitler; Several Prominent Figures Dead

BERLIN, June 30:—Chancellor Hitler today crushed a stillborn revolution, Capt. Ernst Roehm, long his closest friend and trusted leader of the Nazi storm troops, committing suicide when Hitler had him arrested as a conspirator. Kurt von Schleicher, Hitler's predecessor as chancellor, was killed by police when he resisted arrest.

Vice-Chancellor von Papen, the man who two weeks ago warned Hitler that a second revolution led by extremists was impending, was taken into protective custody but was soon released.

The Reichswehr, the National Army, was ordered to be in readiness throughout Germany.

Besides Roehm, a number of other storm troop leaders were dead within a few hours of the time that Hitler struck, some committing suicide and some being killed while resisting arrest.

Police Court Fines For Month Down But For Year Are Ahead

Police court fines in this city for the month of June totalled $145 as compared with $210 in the same month last year, bringing the total for the first half of 1934 up to $1049 as against $591 in the corresponding period of last year.

Premier Brownlee Loses First Round in Seduction Case; His Claim of Conspiracy is Out

EDMONTON, June 30: (CP)—A counter claim of Premier Brownlee charging Vivian MacMillan with conspiracy was dismissed by Mr. Justice Ives in Supreme Court today. The question of costs was reserved. The defence has completed its case in which Miss MacMillan claims $20,000 damages for alleged seduction and a verdict may be reached tonight.

Premier Brownlee made a complete denial of all charges made against him by Vivian MacMillan.

"Did you ever, on your solemn oath," asked A. L. Smith K.C., defence counsel, "at any time endeavor to or have improper relations with Vivian MacMillan?"

"I did not," replied the Premier.

Mrs. Brownlee was also a witness and she said that statements by Miss MacMillan that she had improper relations with Mr. Brownlee in his home while his wife was there were not true. "It could not be true," Mrs. Brownlee declared.

Miss Margaret Maguire of the teaching staff of Booth Memorial School here will sail on the Prince Rupert this evening for Vancouver enroute to her home at Salmon Arm where she will spend the summer vacation. Going south on the same steamer will be her sister, Miss Maud Maguire, formerly also a local teacher but now located at Anyox.

ALIVE WHEN PUSHED IN

Native Witness Tells Vernon Court Constable Carr Was Living When Thrown in River

VERNON, June 30: (CP)—In the trial of three Canford Indian brothers—Richardson, Alex and Eneas George—for the murder of Dominion Constable F. H. Gisborne, Henry Brown, an Indian witness for the crown, stated that Provincial Constable Percy Carr was still alive when Richardson George pushed him into the Nicola River after the two oficers had been severely beaten by the native trio.

The case is the one of outstanding interest at the session of the Supreme Court Assizes here. Mr. Justice Denis Murphy is the presiding judge. Attorney General Gordon Sloan is leading the prosecution personally and Stuart Henderson K.C. is chief defence counsel.

Provincial Constable Percy Carr is alleged to have been murdered with Gisborne but his body was never found.

Shrine Head Speaks Here

A. W. Dawe of New Westminster, illustrious potentate of Gizeh Shrine Temple of Victoria, who is spending a few days in the city on his way home after having attended a recent Imperial Ceremonial at Minneapolis, paid a visit to the local Shrine Club at the Masonic Temple Thursday night and gave an interesting resume of the proceedings at the ceremonial. For the first time a Canadian in the person of Morley McKenzie of Rameses Temple, Toronto, had been started through the offices leading to that of Imperial Potentate, Mr. Dawe told his listeners.

Arthur Brooksbank, president of the local Shrine Club, was in the chair and there was a full attendance of nobles. Refreshments were served.

Mr. Dawe, who is accompanied by his wife, will sail for New Westminster on the Prince Rupert tonight.

All Ready For Dominion Day

With the Weather Man now rests the success of the Prince Rupert Football Association's Dominion Day celebration in Prince Rupert, all arrangements for which are now fully completed. Provided the weather favors, it should be a good day with a splendid bill of entertainment for one and all. The proceedings will start at noon with the parade from Armory to Acropolis Hill grounds where there will be free distribution of candy, etc. after which the children's sports will commence. This will be followed by the Dominion Day softball championship final after which there will be the Dominion Day Cup senior football final, a junior football game rounding off the afternoon's program. In the evening there will be a dance in the Moose Hall.

Funeral Notice

The funeral of the late Mrs. William Brand will take place on Monday at 2 o'clock from the Chapel of the B. C. Undertakers.

PRESIDENT DE VALERA'S FIANNA FAIL WINS OUT IN FREE STATE VOTING

FLY OVER ATLANTIC

Polish Brothers Fail to Make Warsaw But Made Forced Landing in France

PARIS, June 30: (CP)—Benjamin and Joseph Adamowicz, Polish brothers, landed safely in the plane "City of Warsaw" southwest of Caen, France, today after an Atlantic flight from Brooklyn via Harbor Grace, Nfld. They were forced down by shortage of gasoline.

The brothers took off at 3:56 Eastern Standard Time yesterday morning from Harbor Grace, Nfld., having flown there from Brooklyn on Thursday. Their destination was Warsaw, Poland. They missed a crash by inches in taking off from Harbor Grace in their red, white and blue Bellanca monoplane.

INVITATION IS REFUSED

Hon. W. D. Euler Not to Become Head of Ontario Hydro Commission

OTTAWA, June 30:—Hon. W. D. Euler has refused an invitation of Premier-elect Mitchell F. Hepburn of Ontario to become hydro commissioner for Ontario. The decision is ascribed to a change in Mr. Hepburn's plans.

James Hutchinson of the teaching staff of Booth Memorial School will sail on the Prince Rupert this evening for Vancouver enroute to his home at Chilliwack where he will spend the summer vacation.

Wedded Here Last Evening

Miss Mae Schubert Becomes Bride Of Alex Strachan

A pretty wedding took place last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Schubert, 1226 Second Avenue, of Mae, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Schubert to Alex Strachan, Rev. Canon W. H. Rushbrook officiating.

The rooms were tastefully decorated with pink and white streamers and flowers.

The bride, who was given away by her father, entered to the strains of the "Wedding March" played by Mrs. J. S. Black. She wore ankle length white organdie dress with hat and shoes to match, carrying a bouquet of pink rosebuds and baby's breath. She was attended by Miss Edna Strand, bridesmaid, who wore pale blue ankle length organdie dress and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and fern.

The groom was accompanied by J. Allen as best man.

After the ceremony the happy couple received the guests under an arch of streamers and wedding bell.

The toast to the bride and groom was proposed by Canon Rushbrook.

The wedding cake, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. J. Preece, was cut by the bride and a buffet supper followed under the capable supervision of Mrs. Frank Fitch. Dancing and singing, also tap dancing by little Mis Joyce Gawthorne followed.

Costly and numerous gifts were received, including a case of silver from the employees of the Cold Storage where the groom is employed.

The young couple will be leaving today for Canoe Pass with the best of good wishes.

NO PAPER MONDAY

Monday, being a public holiday for the celebration of Dominion Day, there will be no issue of the Daily News. The next regular edition will appear Tuesday afternoon.

New Efforts To Bring About Settlement of Dispute Are Failure

President Ryan Called From San Francisco to Washington To Discuss Tie-up—Rioting and Disorders in Various Ports Are Reported

SAN FRANCISCO, June 30:—The Pacific Coast longshoremen's strike situation appeared last night to be still hopelessly deadlocked despite new efforts to arrive at a settlement. Joseph Ryan, president of the International Longshoremen's Union, left yesterday for Washington, having been called there, it is understood, to discuss the situation with administration heads. Rioting and disorders were reported yesterday from various ports on the coast including Seattle, Portland and Los Angeles. Shipping is being held almost at a standstill.
