Surprise Party Last Evening

A delightful surprise party took place last night when between thirty and forty friends of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McMeekin invaded their home, 341 Fourth Avenue East, the occasion being the twentieth anniversary of their wedding. They took possession and organized a bridge party, the winners being: ladies' first, Mrs. D. C. McRae; second, Mrs. Jack; men's first, Walter Vance; second, W. Wrathall.

Refreshments were served by the visiting ladies and a presentation was made to Mr. and Mrs. McMeekin of an afternoon tea set of Royal Doulton ware on behalf of the visitors by S. E. Parker who made a neat speech in doing so. The recipients replied and there was much merriment after which dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.
