ANOTHER KING PASSES

Albert, King of the Belgians, passed away at the weekend. His end was rather tragic and it is interesting to Frank Aldridge and J. Sutherland. note that it was not in the carrying out of his kingly duties that he lost his life.

Although ruler of a small kingdom, King Albert was an Joy as umpires, the line-ups were Hickey (2), Gurvich, Antonelli (1) outstanding European monarch. ## Court is Now Being Removed

The old handball court on Fulton Street near the City Hall is now being demolished so that the ground may be used this year in the extension of the gardens of the police department. Undoubtedly, the old court has been long an eyesore. It has been permitted to remain only because it offered an opportunity for members of the fire department and others to exercise themselves.
