SMITHERS MAN PASSES

Most men when they die are missed more or less but only a few cannot well be replaced. L. S. McGill of Smithers was one of the latter. His work as a barrister was important but it was in connection with mining development and general publicity activities that Mr. McGill was best known. He knew the Bulkley Valley and its possibilities as few other men knew it and he could tell about it in a way that the average person could readily understand. He had great faith in its possibilities and was always ready to devote time and money to let people know about it. His passing will be a great loss to the whole of Northern British Columbia including Prince Rupert.

HOW CHANGES COME

There seem to be two methods of reform in the world. There is the old-fashioned method of reforming the individual, commencing, if possible, with the children. This, it is declared by many, is the only true method. The other method is that brought about by mass action such as has been recently witnessed in Italy, Germany and Russia, the influence being superimposed. This, too, is more or less effective. In the second method force is an active factor just as force has to be used occasionally in the education of a child. However, force alone has no value. It has to be accompanied by a spiritual renaissance or it is abortive.

In the United States today an attempt is being made to stop the crime wave by means of force. It may be possible but, unless it is accompanied by other reforms, it cannot prove effective. What is needed is a wave of opposition to all forms of lawlessness on the part of the people. While there is such a thing as individual reform there is also such a thing as mass influence by which the point of view of a whole nation becomes changed. This may even spread to a world movement. Possibly we are in order for such a world movement in the near future and it may take the form of a universal determination to abolish war.

THE IRISH SENATE

President de Valera recently made an attempt to abolish the Senate in the Irish Free State. The lower house passed the bill but the Senate refused to abolish itself and voted 33 to 15 against abolition.

In the course of the debate the Irish President came in for a lot of severe criticism, the claim being made that he was striving toward autocracy. It will be interesting to know what will be the next move by the President.

SPORT CHAT

By winning two close week-end victories over the Philadelphia Athletics at Shibe Park the New York Yankees went back into the leadership of the American League with a margin of half a game over the Detroit Tigers, who were winning twice over the Chicago White Sox at the Windy City. The Cleveland Indians lost twice to the Browns at St. Louis and dropped from the leadership into third place, half a game below the Tigers. The Brown advanced to fourth place with a mere mathematical lead over the Washington Senators who split week-end honors with the Boston Red Sox at the National Capital.

In the National League, the St. Louis Cardinals divided week-end honors with the Pittsburg Pirates at Pittsburg and maintained their half game margin of leadership over the New York Giants and Chicago Cubs who are still tied for second place. The Pittsburg Pirates took exclusive possession of fourth place ahead of the Boston Braves who lost to the Robins at Brooklyn Sunday after having played a draw on Saturday.

PACKERS IN BIG PICNIC

Cold Storage Outing at Grassy Bay Is Huge Success

Old King Sol smiled on the fourth annual picnic of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. employees at Grassy Bay last Sunday. Four great coaches were required to convey the picnickers to the bay not counting the individual cars and pedestrians. Close to two hundred people attend this event each year and all are connected with the cold storage plant.

A fine program of sports was arranged, the winners of the different events being as follows:

Girls, 5 and under—L. Elliott.
Boys, 5 and under—David Murray.
Girls, 5 to 7—T. Krause.
Boys, 5 to 7—L. Campagna.

The softball game between the office staff and shed men resulted in a score of 8-6 in favor of the Office which had the advantage of a superb catcher in the person of T. H. Johnson.

The committees were as follows: Transportation—A. Bell, A. Strachan and R. Murray.
Cooks—A. Geary and L. Richardson.

Refreshments—W. Bailie, Angus MacDonald and J. Davidson.

All were under the general chairmanship of Jock Watson.

E. Davidson was judge for the races.

It was generally agreed that Grassy Bay was an ideal spot for a picnic, if the trail were made a little easier and the ground fixed up a bit. Now that Digby Island is refused to the public it was thought it might be a good idea if the various organizations got together and fixed up either Grassy Bay or some other suitable spot so that the people of Prince Rupert could get out for a day.

They'll only be Young once, Dad

And they're longing for C.C.M. Bicycles

THE precious years of boyhood and girlhood are all too brief. Why not take your boy and girl to a C.C.M. dealer's today and give each a C.C.M. Bicycle? You'll be as happy as they are when you see them riding gaily down the street.

A C.C.M. is so handy for riding to school and going errands. And it's such fun to ride such an easy-running bicycle. So healthful, too—develops strength and puts roses into the cheeks.

This year C.C.M. gives the boys and girls smarter, brighter, snappier bicycles than ever, and at the same time gives Dad wonderful value for his money.

The bright parts on 1934 C.C.M.'s are not merely Chromium plated, but the Chromium is applied over C.C.M.'s famous 20-year Nickel, so that this super-brightness is sure to last.

They have new Endrick rims, also Chromium plated; rustless steel spokes; new, racy Dunlop tires; comfortable suspension saddles; frames of seamless steel tubing of aeroplane lightness; improved C.C.M. free-coasting, quick-stopping brake; C.C.M. Triplex-Hanger, C.C.M. hard-wearing enamel and other features that, taken altogether, make C.C.M.'s supreme among bicycles.

Look boys, girls, dads, mothers, at the 1934 prices:

C.C.M. Boys' and Girls' Models	$32.50
