Day Was Success

of the lodge, etc. taking part. At the afternoon ceremonies, City Commissioner W. J. Alder gave the address on the Flag and Dean Gibson also spoke. Lee Gordon, exalted ruler of the Elks, presided. Following the free distribution of peanuts and ice cream, a program of races and games was run off.

Crowning of Queen

The outstanding feature of the evening, of course, was the crowning of the May Queen which was a colorful and elaborate spectacle. There were the usual formalities such as band formation, guard of honor and salute following which addresses were given by the exalted ruler and the city commissioner.

On the arrival of the Queen, "O Canada" was sung following which the crowning ceremony took place. The 1934 Queen, Miss Victoria Stamford, Booth Memorial School, was duly crowned by her predecessor, Miss Lydia Pettenuzo, the 1933 Queen. Attendants of the new queen were her maids of honor, Miss Mary Orme of Borden Street School, and Miss Margaret Smith of Annunciation School, as well as the little flower girls—Delphine and Charlotte Balagno, Faith King and Alice Clapp. The 1933 Queen was attended by her maids of honor, Misses Rosie Smith and Mickey Casey. The beautiful costumes used by the court were created under the direction of Annette and the girls were trained by Mrs. W. E. Willisroff.

Other items on the program included presentation of flowers and gifts and a presentation to the May Queen. There was fancy dancing by pupils of Mrs. James Watt and Miss Eleanor Tite.

The dance, for which music was furnished by Charlie Balagno's orchestra, continued until 1:30 a.m. There was the 11 p.m. Elks' ceremony. At midnight, the drawing for the round trip to Vancouver or $25 in cash took place, the winner being Miss Olea Dybhavn with ticket No. 1236.

Among those contributing to making the day a success were the Hyde Lodge, Lindsay's Cartage, Moose Lodge, Eagles' Lodge, Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, Canadian Legion, Benson's Studio and others.

WHIFFLETS

From the Waterfront

Sailing from here at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon for the north, C. N. R. steamer Prince George, Capt. H. E. Nedden, will proceed to Ketchikan on a special call, arriving there at 10:30 p.m. and sailing one hour later for Anyox where she is scheduled to arrive at 7:30 Thursday morning, leaving the smelter town at 10 a.m., arriving at Stewart at 6 p.m., leaving there at 9 p.m. and returning here at 6 o'clock Friday morning to sail for the south at 8:30 a.m.

Halibut prices continue to hold steady at this port. At yesterday's session of the local Fish Exchange a total of 94,000 pounds of American fish was sold at from 6.5c and 5c to 8, and 5c while 53,000 pounds of Canadian fish brought 5.5c and 5c.

Further delayed by adverse tidal conditions in the Naas River after having been late in leaving here for the north Sunday night, Union steamer Catala, Capt. A. E. Dickson, is due back in port at 5 o'clock this afternoon from Anyox. Stewart and other northern points and will sail soon thereafter for Vancouver and waypoints.

Another special sailing will be made north from here to Alaska by the steamer Princess Adelaide this week with calls at Ketchikan and Juneau. Due here on schedule Friday afternoon from the south, the vessel will sail as soon as possible for the north and is due back here enroute to Vancouver on Monday morning. The special sailing is being made to accommodate business from Seattle to Alaska arising from the continuation of the Pacific Coast longshoremen's strike which has tied up American vessels operating to Alaska.

Armour Salvage Co.'s service boat Salvage Princess returned to port last night from a successful holiday week-end angling trip to Leveson and Bill's Lake on Warke Canal. Good but not exceptional catches were taken by all members of the party and, with weather highly delightful, the outing was a most enjoyable one. The anglers were Capt. W. P. Armour, Dr. J. H. Carson, W. O. Fulton, F. A. MacCallum, Capt. J. R. Elfert, J. T. Harvey, F. N. Good and J. M. Walker.

Gardening In Prince Rupert

The date for the forthcoming rose show will have to be set soon. Already a few roses are in flower but the late importations will not be ready for some time to come. It will be for the executive of the Prince Rupert Horticultural Society to decide what date would be the best compromise to enable the largest number to be represented.

Other flowers suitable for exhibition at the show will have to be considered besides roses. Some of the annuals will possibly be ready in time. Much depends upon the date set as to what are the possible entrants.

D. McCorkindale, typographical foreman of the Daily News, imported some regal lilies this year. One of them he brought to the shop and kept in a pot in the window. This morning the first flower opened its regal petals and showed to the printers and the type and the admiring office staff the rich interior. The lilies of this variety planted out of doors will not be in bloom for several weeks. Miss Mary Macfie, 6th Avenue West also has a regal in bloom.

Most of the gardens in the city are now gay with purple "Sweet Rocket". While this plant resembles a phlox in some respects, it is not a phlox. It grows and blooms very freely, winters well and is very fragrant. It is particularly suited for Prince Rupert gardens, especially for those who wish a good showing of flowers with little effort.

Commissioner W. J. Alder and George Dawes have both been showing some very fine pansy blooms, very large and gorgeously colored. If this fine weather continues the pansies will deteriorate except in shaded situations. Gardeners were hoping that the thunder shower last night would have developed into a night's rain. Pretty soon the hose will have to be freely used if the gardens are to be kept up to standard. Plants that are well rooted do not usually need watering but the hose should be used freely amongst them.

Strawberries In Heavy Demand In South This Year

VICTORIA, June 5.—With big orders from Great Britain and Eastern Canada, the demand for British Columbia strawberries is very heavy this year. The crop both in the Fraser Valley and on Vancouver Island is large and prices are not high. Strawberry pickers are working overtime garnering the early harvest of the luscious fruit.
