CHANCE TO WIN DINNER

Palm Coffee Shop Opening Saturday And Offering Interesting Prize

Prince Rupert's new coffee shop, "The Palm", is to open at 11:30 Saturday morning under the capable management of Mrs. Harry Nelson. As an added attraction on the opening day customers will have a chance to guess the number of cups of coffee served that day up to midnight. The person making the nearest guess will get a free chicken dinner for two people or a dollar in cash.

The new cafe is located in the building formerly occupied by Rose Cowan and Latta's stationery shop on Third Avenue across from the Power Company's offices. For the past two weeks the place has been in the hands of the decorators and a wonderful transformation has taken place there, under the direction of J. P. Moller. Booths have been erected, a lunch counter installed and arrangements made so that the kitchen is at all times open to inspection of customers. Accommodation is provided for forty persons at one time.

Mrs. Nelson says that the place will be open from 7 a.m. to 1 a.m. and regular meals will be served from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. and from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. She has engaged two pleasant waitresses and visitors will at all times get service with a smile.

Freshies of High School in Picnic At Pillsbury Cove

There were over seventy young folk in attendance on Saturday at the annual picnic of Grade Nine pupils of King Edward High School, the outing being a most enjoyable one. The Armour Salvage Co.'s service boat Salvage Princess transported the picnickers to Pillsbury Cove. The usual sports and games were enjoyed and refreshments were provided in abundance. Return home was made by 8 p.m. Harold Johns, Arthur Sutton and Miss Dorothy Patmore were the teachers in charge.
