

RAILBOAT HAND RAISED CAIN

Anton Rube, Seaman on the Steel Boat Hans B. Fined $15 and Costs for Drunk and Resisting Last Night.

Jack ashore is generally expected to raise all kinds of Cain, especially after a long voyage round the Horn, but even after allowances have been made some kinds of Cain raising have to be accounted for in the police court. So Anton Rube, a Hans B. hand this morning had to hand over about $17 of his hard earned as compensation to the Municipality of Prince Rupert for the trouble he caused said Municipality, and its police officers "severally as aforesaid" as it says in the Hydro-Electric Bylaw. Rube resisted arrest whilst drunk, and raised Cain as hard as he was Abel, telling the police he didn't care Adam for them yester Eve.

NEW UNDERTAKER

Thoroughly Experienced is Mr. Fisher in the Business

With several years of first class practical experience behind him, Mr. E. L. Fisher has opened an undertaking parlor on Third avenue quite near to the News office. Before coming here Mr. Fisher was manager for the well known Victoria funeral director W. J. Hanna.

Mr. Fisher is a graduate of the Myers College of Embalming in Chicago and is thoroughly qualified to carry on an undertaking business in any of the largest cities. As a matter of fact he has practised in some of the principal cities in the United States.

In his new establishment on Third avenue he has fitted up an up to date place. There is a hermetically sealed steel vault for family use when a body has to be shipped away, besides many other new features here. Mr. Fisher wishes it understood that he has no connection with any other undertaker in the city. He has bought out the stock of F. W. Hart and also added to it very considerably.

He invites the public to call and see his premises.—Phone 365.

PROVINCIAL "VINTAGE"

Marvellous Variety of Liquors Confiscated at Recent Raid Up River.

In Chief Owens Sanctum Sanctorum there rest in all their glory some two score of bottles of different kinds of booze. The pristine array gives the room an odor—well scarcely sanctity—and the number and variety in the drinks represented show the extraordinary versatility in vintages of the genus Blind Pig. From Port to Scotch through all the classes of delicately labelled Japanese Liquers, and the fiery Sam Suey of the Dragon Land, every thing drinkable is there.

ARRIVED DUTY FREE

Customs Officers Each Received A Baby Yestreday

Ere the sun went down last evening Mr. W. G. Humble, a Customs officer at this port was presented with a fine healthy boy and just about the same time Mr. J. H. MacLeod, another Customs officer here, was donated with a pretty little baby girl, his first born. Both of the mothers and both of the babes are doing fine at the General Hospital.

COMPASSION VS. FAIRPLAY

Mr. Solomon Mussallem Explains His Attitude to That Fruit Stand.

Compassion versus the sense of fair play is really the position in reference to Mr. Mussallem's attitude to the fruit stand put up by Andrew Hansen on McBride street by permission of Alderman Kirkpatrick. Mr. Mussallem, it turns out, was not aware that Hansen was permanently disabled or he might never have troubled in the matter. Now that it has been opened, however, his instinct of fairplay to all citizens impels him to remain firm. He holds that the fruit stand on the main street of the city is something of an eyesore, and that the permission to erect it was most irregular when a rate-payer and property holder in established business like himself is refused. Fairplay and justice come before even compassion, declares Mr. Mussallem, and he maintains that the stand should be removed even if Alderman Kirkpatrick has to find light city employment for Andrew Hansen. Should the citizens desire to do anything to help Mr. Hansen, Mr. Mussallem himself, will gladly lead with a handsome contribution; but the fruit stand on McBride street put up according to such a doubtful precedent should really, he thinks, be removed, unless the aldermen want to be inundated with applications for street sites from the physically unfit.

STEAM ROLLER SANK

Struck Weak Place on Third Avenue—Trifling Accident
A hole marked the spot where the civic steam roller dived into the succulent muskeg. It was choo-chooing ahead up Third avenue yesterday afternoon and in front of the Prince Rupert Hardware Company's store it struck a weak place in the road and the rear wheels sank down. Mr. McNeil, superintendent of works, and a gang of men soon had the machine out of the hole and working again.

Experts say such an incident would happen on any road even where there was not muskeg below the rock. The roller was not damaged in any way.

FINED A HUNDRED

Hazel Lawrence of the Slippery Pathway Treated an Indian to Hooh.
For having supplied an Indian with whisky the other night Hazel Lawrence, a girl of the restricted district, was today fined $100 and costs by Magistrate Carrs. This is another case of Sergeant Phillipson's unearthing. It seems rather difficult for an Indian nowadays to get drunk in Prince Rupert or district generally without the watchful eye of the sergeant's lighting upon him, and following up stray clues right home to the source of the intoxicating supply.

FROSTS ALREADY ON PRAIRIE

May Have Serious Effect on Crops—Damage not yet Known. Weather Cool Yet but May Get Warmer.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
Winnipeg, Aug. 24.—Light frosts were reported at several points in the prairie provinces last night, which may effect the crops detrimentally. In Southern Manitoba six degrees were registered and around Regina the water in the troughs outside was frozen over with a thin coat of ice.

Many other places report the temperature as being near freezing point. The actual extent of the damage to crops is not yet known. Warm weather is predicted again, but at present the wind remains very cool.

POOR OLD JOE

Comes from England to Try and Jolt Liberals
(Canadian Press Despatch)
Winnipeg, Aug. 24.—Joe Martin M. P. for St. Pancras London, England, arrived here today en route for Vancouver where, he says, he will take part in the election campaign in opposition to the Liberal candidates although he is in favor of reciprocity.

DUNCAN ROSS, WINNER

Delegates Returning Here Say This is Assured
Mr. George Naden, H. B. Campbell and F. G. Dawson returned yesterday from the south after attending the Liberal Convention at Nanaimo last Saturday. All are confident from the feeling down south that Duncan Ross will be a winner. The south has promised to support him in every way.

DIED SUDDENLY

(Canadian Press Despatch)
Vancouver, Aug. 23.—A. L. Belyea, K. C., one of the most prominent barristers of the city, died very suddenly this afternoon. He was seized with hemorrhage while at work in his office which proved fatal a short time afterwards. Mr. Belyea was 55 years of age and a native of Fredericton, N. B. He came to Vancouver in 1887.

STEVENS FOR VANCOUVER

(Canadian Press Despatch)
Vancouver, Aug. 23.—Alderman H. H. Stevens for Ward 5 was nominated by the Conservatives as the candidate in the forthcoming Federal election. He is a young man just completing his second year in municipal affairs. He defeated Harry Senkler, K. C. J. J. Miller, S. J. Howe, and James Findlay.

You Are Cheating Yourself

When You Go Anywhere Else For The Slater Shoe

You can't get the Slater Shoe—labelled with the slate—except in stores controlling the sale of the Slater Shoe.

You are simply cheating yourself when you go to other stores and buy a shoe that is said to be the Slater Shoe.

Anyone named Slater can make shoes but such shoes cannot legally be sold as the Slater Shoe.

The Slater Shoe did not make its reputation by trading on the name of any other shoe.

It blazed its own trail. It built its own reputation. It made the name Slater stand for quality throughout all Canada.

The only shoe that is a genuine Slater Shoe—bears the slate trademark.

The only stores that sell the Slater Shoe display the Sign of the Slate.

We—and we alone—in this city sell the genuine Slater Shoe—Goodyear welted.
