DAILY EDITION Tuesday, July 31, 1934

SIXTEEN YEARS AGO

Sixteen years ago today the Daily News was taken over by the present management. At that time we were all very hopeful for the future and expected Prince Rupert to be a big city in a few years. We still expect Prince Rupert to be a big city but the building will take time. We have to do it step by step, sometimes faster and sometimes slower. We have to adapt ourselves to changing conditions. With the passing of the depression which has hit almost every city in every country throughout the world we shall find ourselves resuming our normal building operations before very long and with a revival in the building trades will come increased spending power and general activity. The big salmon season will help but it will be followed by poor seasons. In looking ahead we must expect poor seasons and good ones. The difficulty is to get rid of the idea that temporary prosperity is going to be permanent prosperity.

During the past sixteen years there have been many ups and downs. There has been considerable building done since that time. Practically the whole of Westview has been built; all the soldiers' houses were erected, the elevator built, a number of business blocks and individual stores including the Moose Hall, Besner Building, the building where Elio's new store is located, the building which houses DeJong's Cash & Carry, the Canadian Legion home, two stores, one of which is occupied by Selvig's Market, two stores on Second Avenue occupied by Gratton, the building occupied by McClymont and Ireland, and other buildings including many dwellings throughout the city.

Sixteen years ago practically all the streets were planked. All these have since been graded and surfaced and some permanent or semi-permanent sidewalks have been laid. A hydro-electric power plant has been installed by the Northern B. C. Power Co. Ltd. All along the waterfront there have been great improvements.

The big ocean dock has been built, the new cold storage plant and many smaller buildings. Everywhere there has been improvement. Also there has been a good start made in beautifying the city with lawns and gardens.

As to the future it is impossible to prophesy. We expect great improvements and extensions, increases in population, new buildings. Much will depend upon the people themselves. If each does a little and all work with a common purpose we shall build a city of which we may be proud.

SOFTBALL IS LOOSE

Grotto and C. N. R. A. Winners in Pair of Uninspiring Games

Softball fans last night witnessed fourteen innings of haphazard and lop-sided ball when two seven-innings City League matches were staged in the Canadian National Recreation Association ball park.

In the first game, the regularly scheduled league fixture, the ever-powerful Grotto nine found it soft work to subdue an erring herd of Moose ball-droppers to the tune of 11 to 4. If a stranger had arrived about the fourth or fifth innings he would have thought he had come on nothing but a batting practice or at the best, a pick-up game, so desultory and careless was the play put up by the Moose. This game was stopped at the end of the seventh to make way for the second fumblefest of the evening with the Junior Elks the fumblers and the Canadian National Recreation Association the winners. This match, regularly slated for Wednesday evening was put ahead to last night. If it never had been played it would have been O.K. with the majority of the watching citizenry, who, after just seeing the previous errorful contest, were more than disgusted to find this game was just a carbon copy of the first as regards one-sidedness and general misplaying. The forcible Railroaders had a clear board all the way through and it was no hardship for them to win by a score of 9 to 1. With only seven hits in the whole game, four by the victors and three by the Blundering Herd, it can easily be deduced that there must have been a plentitude of errors to allow the Railroaders to amass nine runs in seven innings.

Luckily darkness gently intervened with two innings to go or the score might have been even more top-heavy.

As a result of their wins last night the Grotto and C. N. R. A. are tied for the premier position with the Junior Elks in next place and the Elks and Moose trailing behind in the order named.

Score by innings:

First Game

Grotto	0	4	0	3	4	0	0	—	11
Moose	1	1	0	0	0	0	2	—	4

Batteries: Yager and Gurvich, Bury; Stewart and McFee.

Second Game

Junior Elks	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	—	1
C. N. R. A.	0	3	0	2	4	0	x	—	9

Batteries: Lindsay and Campbell; Pitcher and Geddes.

Umpires, Comadina and Joy.
