British Public Receives Gift of Six Pence Per Pound in Income Tax Reduction—Pay Cuts Restored as Well As Full Relief-Auto Tax Lower

LONDON, April 17: (CP)—The British public today received the gift of a six pence per pound reduction in income tax and a reduction in the case of small incomes of approximately ten pence. Rt. Hon. Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, announced in his budget speech that one half of the pay cuts of government employees would be restored on July and unemployment relief fully restored at the same date. At the first of the year-the automobile licence tax will be cut twenty-five percent from the present rate of one pound sterling per horsepower. The Chancellor announced that, in the fiscal year just ending, the government had had a surplus of £39,000,000. The ensuing year should show a profit of £29,000,000 .. Mr. Chamberlain said that it was impossible at the present time to contemplate a reduction of indirect

Doors of Courts to Be Closed To Foreign Security Holders Who Refuse Refunding Here

VANCOUVER, April 17: (CP)—In the course of an address yesterday before the Vancouver Board of Trade on the subject of "Legislation of the Last Session," Hon. Gordon Sloan, attorney general, made the important statement in regard to British Columbia bonds that those bondholders residing outside of Canada who do not accept the government's offer of conversion will not be permitted to take their case to the courts.

Authority was given in the Revenue Act passed at the last session of the Legislature to close the doors of the courts to foreign bondholders who do not accept the refunding offer of the government, Mr. Sloan declared.

"Under this Act," Mr. Sloan stated, "to the man with bonds we say: 'We will give you one hundred cents on the dollar for your bond or take it back at a lower rate of interest.' I don't say when that power will be exercised." Mr. Sloan said that no one wished to violate the sanctity of contracts but it was impossible for the province to continue its financing as it had been do-
