The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topica of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.

Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy: All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication. Letter should be written un one side of the paper only.
