TO-DAY With Daily

LF the analogy doesn't seem too far-fetched, may we liken him to the manufacturer who, making a good product, decides it to be so superlative that it will eventually sell itself! He, like our friend in the mask, is doomed to bitter oblivion characteristic of men who, through short-sightedness, fail to grasp the one essential fact that business opponents are merciless. They ask no quarter and give none. When you are faced with competition of this kind, take the initiative, market your product FIRST and do it over-night... in the DAILY NEWSPAPER.

Who was the man in the iron mask? We must confess ourselves baffled. Historians have given us various theories relative to ancestry

... Eye witnesses have given us accounts of his stature, habits, mode of apparel, deportment and one hundred and one other details, but-one feature is really significant... NO ONE KNOWS WHO HE WAS.
