WHIFFLETS
From the Waterfront

With many local persons, including school teachers and a number of families, leaving for Vancouver and elsewhere in the south to spend the summer vacation, there was very much of a holiday air about the steamer Prince Rupert as she pulled out from here for the south Saturday evening. She was practically a full ship. Among those going through were teachers from Anyox as well as several smelter town families.

Having on board a fair sized list of passengers, Union steamer Catala, Capt. A. E. Dickson, arrived in port at 10 o'clock Sunday night from Vancouver and sailed a couple of hours later for Anyox, Stewart and other northern points whence she returned here this afternoon at 2 o'clock, sailing at 3 p.m. for the south.

Southbound after her first voyage of the season to Alaska on summer tourist schedule, C. P. R. steamer Princess Charlotte, Capt. W. Q. Palmer, was here from 4 o'clock to 5:30 Saturday afternoon. The vessel had on board 150 passengers of whom four disembarked here. Fourteen persons took passage from here for the south on the vessel.

Capt. Albert Rippon is in command of the steamer Princess Maquinna which is at present on a special voyage to Petersburg, Alaska, with a cannery crew of 280 persons. It is understood that the Maquinna will make another special voyage to Alaska following the present one with a cannery crew for Ketchikan.

The steamer Princess Alice, which left Vancouver last night on a special round trip voyage to Ketchikan with a Knights of Columbus party from San Francisco, being due here Thursday morning, is to make another special voyage to Alaska at the conclusion of the present one. Capt. James Flood is in command of the Alice which is due here from 8 to 11 o'clock on Thursday morning northbound and from 2 to 4 o'clock southbound.

With a capacity list of 250 passengers, most of whom were round trip tourists, C. P. R. steamer Princess Louise, Capt. Thomas Cliff, arrived in port at 9:30 yesterday morning from Vancouver and sailed a couple of hours later for Skagway and other Alaska points whence she is due here Saturday afternoon southbound. The vessel also had on board no less than 400 tons of freight for Alaska. Two passengers disembarked from the vessel here. During the longshoremen's strike which has tied up the American vessels, Petersburg has been added to the lists of calls of the C. P. R. boats in Alaska for delivery of mail.

Returning south after her first voyage of the season to Alaska, C. N. R. steamer Prince George, Capt. H. E. Nedden, arrived in port at 9:45 yesterday morning from Skagway and other northern points and sailed at 3 p.m. for Vancouver via Ocean Falls and Powell River. The Prince George had 150 passengers on board, most of them being round trip tourists. Five persons disembarked from the vessel here.

Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Kergin and party including Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Stevenson of Ottawa, Miss B. Foex R.N. of Toronto, Mrs. F. E. Robertson, Miss Edith Kergin and Miss Margaret Kergin R.N. returned to the city at the end of the week on the power cruiser Full Moon from a week's holiday cruise which included visits to Anyox, Alice Arm and Stewart. Mrs. W. S. Kergin of Premier went north with them.
