MOLLISONS FAVORED TO WIN AIR RACE TO AUSTRALIA

Whether or Not Pacts Shall Be Retained Is Problem for Nations

Great Britain, France and United States Said to be Favorable to Retention of Basic Principles of London and Washington Treaties-Japan is Opposed

WASHINGTON, D.C., Oct. 19: (CP)-On the eve of the ondon naval conference, the United States made public; its plan for submission to the conference. The American plan proposes substantial all around reduction of general lous nation which is being gradualpaval armaments and renewal of the Washington and London naval treaties with mutual sacrifices. Great Bri-ain and France, who had preliminary discussions in London yester-Renominated day, are also believed to favor retaining basic principles of the London and Washington treaties with > general reductions. Japan has already announced that it would renounce the Washington treaty under which it is denied parity with other nations. It demands the privilege of equal naval strength with other nations and favors reduction on that basis.

It is hoped that a compromise arrangement acceptable to all the major naval powers may be arrived
