Contentious Measure Gets Third Reading By Vote of 85 to 35

Amendment by Leader of Opposition Which Would Have Put House in Committee of Whole to Consider Bill Was Rejected Earlier in Day

OTTAWA, June 8: (CP)—Climaxing weeks of bitter DENTIFIED debate, the House of Commons last night divided 85 to 35 to give third reading to the Marketing Act. Earlier in the day the House defeated 93 to 44 a motion by Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King, leader of the Opposition, that the bill be referred back to a committee of the whole House for amendments.
