

Today's Weather

Prince Rupert—Part cloudy, southeast wind; barometer, 29.05; temperature, 48; sea choppy.

The Daily News

NORTHERN AND CENTRAL BRITISH COLUMBIA'S NEWSPAPER

Tomorrow's Tides

High 1:25 a.m. 21.1 ft. 13:21 p.m. 23.1 ft. Low 7:22 a.m. 5.6 ft. 20:00 p.m. 1.4 ft.

Vol. XXIV, No. 245.

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., MONDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1934

PRICE: FIVE CENTS

SCOTT AND BLACK REACH AUSTRALIA

MANY LIVES LOST IN SEVERE STORM DOWN COAST SUNDAY

British Team, Near Melbourne Today, Appear Almost Sure To Win England-Australian Flight

Fokker Plane On Way to Carcross Makes Stop Here

Piloting an eight-passenger Fokker monoplane, which will be stationed at Carcross for commercial flying in Northern British Columbia and the Yukon, R. C. Randall made a brief stop here yesterday, landing at 1:30 a.m. from Vancouver and hopping off at 1 p.m. in continuation of the northern flight.

Today's Stocks

Table of stock prices including Vancouver, Toronto, and Oils sections.

Dutchmen Still Holding Second Place Today With Americans Third—Col. and Mrs. James Mollison Forced to Drop Out

PORT DARWIN, Australia, Oct. 22: (CP)—Smashing all records for the flight from England to Australia, the British team of C. W. A. Scott and Campbell Black landed at Port Darwin today and, after making repairs to their engine, hopped off for Charleville, 1400 miles away. The next hop of 750 miles from Charleville would bring them to Melbourne. They were only two days and four hours out of London on arriving here.

Scott Has Substantial Lead In England to Melbourne Air Race With Dutchmen in Second Place

SINGAPORE, Straits Settlements, Oct. 22: (CP)—With Capt. and Mrs. James Mollison having dropped into fourth place after their plane had developed engine trouble between Bagdad and Karachi, C. W. A. Scott and Campbell Black were some 1300 miles ahead of the Dutch commercial fliers, K. D. Parmenteer and J. J. Moll, on leaving here for Port Darwin, Australia, early this morning on the fourth lap of the England to Melbourne air race.

Harold Vermilyea Reaches Belleville

BELLEVILLE, Ont., Oct. 22: (CP)—Harold Vermilyea, who waived extradition from California, arrived here yesterday under police escort from the west. It is expected his preliminary trial for murder in connection with the "hatchet killing" of his mother will commence on Saturday.

Government House Of St. Pierre And Miquelon Burned

ST. PIERRE, Oct. 22:—The Government House of St. Pierre and Miquelon and adjoining buildings were destroyed by fire yesterday as a result of the explosion of an electric light plant. The Governor was absent at the time and there were no casualties.

Card of Thanks

The Women's Auxiliary and the Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League express their very sincere appreciation of the support of those who donated goods for the bazaar, the artists who contributed to the program and the many who patronized it.

Russia Enters League of Nations

Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet commissar for foreign affairs, addresses the assembly of the League of Nations, when, with ten exceptions, delegates signified assent to Russia's admission.

Archduke Otto Ready to Take Austrian Throne

VIENNA, Oct. 22.—Archduke Otto of Hapsburg announced at the week-end that he was prepared to take the throne of Austria as soon as the people expressed their desire for him to do so.

IS LAID AT REST

Large Attendance This Afternoon at Obsequies For Late Alex Clapperton

First Presbyterian Church was crowded this afternoon with those desirous of paying their final tributes of esteem and respect to the memory of the late Alexander (Doc) Clapperton, well known pioneer citizen of Prince Rupert, whose death occurred late last week. The service was conducted by Rev. W. D. Grant Hollingworth and Mrs. E. J. Smith presided at the organ to accompany the hymns which were "When On My Day of Life the Night is Falling" and "O Safe to the Rock That is Higher Than I," both of which were favorites of the deceased.

Eighty-Mile Southeaster Sweeps Northwest and Sixteen Dead Result

SEATTLE, Oct. 22: (CP)—At least sixteen persons were killed in the Pacific Northwest as a result of a fierce eighty-mile southeast gale which swept the lower mainland of British Columbia and the Washington and Oregon coasts on Sunday. The big liner President Madison pulled away from her dock when her mooring lines were broken in the storm.

Halibut Arrivals

American Atlas, 28,000, Cold Storage, 9.5c and 6c. Canadian Capella I, 20,000, Atlin, 7.5c and 5c. Atli, 9,000, Atlin, 7.3c and 5c. Covenant, 20,000, Cold Storage, 7.4c and 5c.

Pair of Air Racers Dead

ROME, Oct. 22: (CP)—Flying Officer H. D. Gilman and Co-Pilot Baines, British entrants in the air race to Melbourne, were burned to death when their machine caught fire in the air shortly after they left here on Sunday.

Line-Up at Bagdad

BAGDAD, Oct. 22:—Showing the way to the field with a substantial lead at that time, Capt. and Mrs. James A. Mollison took off from Bagdad for Allahabad on the second lap of the England to Melbourne air race. They had covered in little more than twelve hours

Brother-in-Law of British Columbia Judge is Victim While Hunting Near New Westminster—Five Drown When Puget Sound Fishing Boat Sinks

SEATTLE, Oct. 22: (CP)—At least sixteen persons were killed in the Pacific Northwest as a result of a fierce eighty-mile southeast gale which swept the lower mainland of British Columbia and the Washington and Oregon coasts on Sunday.

Bishops Favor Birth Control

ATLANTIC CITY, Oct. 22:—The House of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in session here, by a vote of 44 to 38 passed a resolution sanctioning birth control and favoring the dissemination of birth control information by hospitals and reputable doctors.

Westminster Man Drowned

VANCOUVER, Oct. 22: (CP)—K. C. MacGown of New Westminster, brother-in-law of Mr. Justice W. G. McQuarrie, was believed drowned while duck hunting on Sunday during a southeast gale while reaching a velocity of fifty miles per hour.

Victoria Feels It

VICTORIA, Oct. 22: (CP)—A 60-mile gale blew here yesterday with the barometer dropping to 28.95. Many windows were smashed and other property damage done.

PRICE OF COPPER NEW YORK, Oct. 22:—The price of copper was unchanged at 9c per pounds on the local market.

PASSES SENTENCE

William Hayner was sentenced this morning by Magistrate McClymont in city police court to seven days' imprisonment without option of fine for operating a motor-vehicle while under influence of liquor. The magistrate announced that he was unable to comply with defence request for suspended sentence. City Solicitor E. F. Jones prosecuted and J. T. Harvey acted as defence counsel. Witnesses for the prosecution were Dr. L. W. Kergin, Dr. J. P. Cade and Constable Taylor and, for the defence, Dr. C. H. Hankinson.

F. Dodsworth, Assistant Manager of the Granby Store, was a passenger aboard the Catala last evening returning to the smelter town after a trip to Vancouver.

KINGSFORD-SMITH IS SAFE AT SUVA

SUVA, Fiji Islands, Oct. 22: (CP)—Having completed the 1700-mile flight from Brisbane in eleven hours and 45 minutes despite adverse winds, clouds and rain squalls, Sir Charles Kingsford-Smith landed here Sunday, narrowly escaping a crash in a grove of trees on coming down. After a brief rest, he planned on hopping off on the next leg of his trans-Pacific flight to Honolulu en route to Oakland, Cal., but found it necessary, on account of heavy rains, to postpone the take-off until Wednesday. He will probably land at Fanning Island, 1200 miles north of here, enroute to Honolulu.

Today's Weather

Dead Tree Point—Cloudy, fresh southeast wind; barometer, 29.54; temperature, 46; heavy chop. Triple Island—Part cloudy, light southeast wind; sea smooth. Terrace—Cloudy, calm, 38. Smithers—Snow, calm, 36. Anyox—Clear, calm, 35. Stewart—Calm, 33. Hazelton—Snow, calm, 32. Smithers—Snow, cool, calm. Burns Lake—Snow, calm, 32.

FOUND IN MONTREAL MONTREAL, Oct. 22: (CP)—The British pound sterling was quoted at $4.85 1/4 on the local exchange market at the week-end.