Rev. George G. Hacker Preaches for Last Time in Local Church Before Taking New Station

Rev. George G. Hacker, who has been pastor of First United Church in the city for several years, preached his farewell sermons yesterday and there were large congregations out as a token o acknowledgment to a man who has long served them well. At the evening service there was a solo by J. S. Wilson. Mr. Hacker, together with Mrs. Hacker and family, will be sailing by the steamer Prince George on Saturday for the south and will spend a month's holiday before Mr. Hacker assumes his new post as United Church minister in Vernon; presiding over what is acknowledged to be one of the best congregations in this province.

Mr. Hacker came in on Saturday's train after spending a couple of days at the mouth of the Skeena River paying his final visit to cannery points.
