Prince Rupert Daily Dews CONVENTION SUPPLEMENT

evelopment at Alice Arm and Portland Canal District show Bright Prospects For Future Activity

ing, the lifeblood of the Alice Arm-Portland along. Louis Rabichard and district of north coastal British Columbia, has Art Cameron are developing a a century afterwards, the great housing for workers-a heritage of the Second World The 100 unoccupied wartime district of north coastal Difference of the bring of silver-lead high grade vein of silver-lead Northwest of Canada was known War. At the present time, there are 100 unoccupied housts are in the Rushbrook as "Rupertsland". in a flow of minerals from its hard-won claims ore out by pack horse later in Prince Rupert was conceived ill return it to the vitality of a quarter of a the season.

v ago. count the vein at a lower level than operation. How Prince Rupert Derived Its Name

Prince Rupert is named after the brilliant nephew of Charles I (cavalry leader of the Civil War)-the first Governor of the Hudson's Bay Company, who obtained in 1670 a charter over the the first with the first in ost-War Stimulus Felt by Mines of District in 1904, when the Laurier govern-

Morris-Summit is continuing ment decided to sponsor the conelv the minerals are from Alice Arm, the power plant its long cross-cut to intersect at struction of a second railway The problem has been, is being put into shape. Here, depth the re-zone indicated in from Winnipeg to the Pacific Ltd., and because of the post-war remains, one of de- it is planned to continue one of higher workings by drilling. Coast. When Kaien Island was drop in population, it was at one access to the proper- the lower additions and develop Evan Harris is manager of this selected as the Coast terminal. time intended to sell them for the land was secured partially demolition.

Unique among Canada population centres because ject of stimulating home ownerit is the only city which has no housing crisis, Prince ship and relieving the govern-Rupert is in a position to welcome new industries. In ment of its vast urban real esterritory as large as Europe. For addition to its other advantages, it offers adequate tate holdings.

houses, built after 1941, for workers at the Prince Rupert dry dock. These houses are among 522 built by Wartime Housing

In the near future, the war- Heights district, a subdivision on time - waterlines, sewers and power lines provide the basis for the expansion of future residential districts if the city's development should warrent it.

Prince Rupert Daily Dews

Wednesday, August 6, 1947

Investigate the Rupert area

1-100 100

ing the war, the dis-	has been developed so far. Angus MacDonald is managing director	Numerous other properties and prospects including the Indian	ernment, and partially from the	However, when the prospect of construction of a pulp mill by use of manpower short-	- A this commence it to The	and Gold Dron are getting ready	Department of Indian Affairs.	the Celanese Corporation of Am-	Recognizing the importance of this Province we have maintained restrictive regulations.		to continue development work.	Sir Charles Hays selected the	erica became known, the houses	a Director or other responsible official in British Columbia in wever, those regulations	PORTLAND CANAL			ket and at the present time are	charge of our business for nearly 20 years.
e although the man-	The Doutland Clanel version is	Not far from Stewart, wartime.	for a suitable name for the new	being held for future occupancy.	analy is years.
Less semaine gente		suspended operations in the	rity.	This surplus, coupled with pri-	During this time Wood, Gundy & Company Limited in Vancouver last two years mining	lage of Stewart, which is its cen-	Unuk River are being resumed.	1	vate home construction, places	and Victoria has established itself as a British Columbia institution the is anoming on a nearly miles	Nor is the mining revival of the		Duting a Descent to a store of	well equipped to serve the special needs of the community.
	uppoughts Cilbalt Dupping in still	district confined to the Portland	where there is a fine bituminous	tion in hidding for your induct	wen equipped to serve the special needs of the community.
ns yield their lodes of	the largest producer in the area	Canal and Alice Arm areas. In	already hains tanned by the	ries and it has been said that	We have underwritten securities of most of the important industries in this Province providing satisfaction to them and to come with increasing	though at reduced capacity. A	opened as is the equally femous	rill) which have been shipping	tors which influenced Celanese Corporation of America to locate	the constantly increasing list of British Columbia investors who
r many years to come.			ALL ALAND THA PATHON INTA HADDEPT
Arm, the Mining Cor-			Prince Rupert and Prince George	in the Prince Rupert area.	depend on us for investment advice. of Canada, owners of	ment more men are aranasie,	also commanding a now magning	for vears.	rivate nome construction m	Our Pritich Columbia and it is 1 1
nne, with values mostly	extensive development will be	of interest In the Ominese min	To the north of the Canadian	Prince Rupert has been spurred,	Our British Columbia underwritings include: are building a road	carried on. D. L. Coulter is gen- eral manager and J. G. Pearcey	ing division there is a new stig	National Railway line near the	as far as the material situation	British Columbia Electric Company Limited railway. It is 17 miles	erar manager and J. G. Fearcey	Near the northern boundary	beadquarters of the Naas River	will allow, by the fact that the	British Columbia Packers Limited Dolly Varden and an-	Is his assistant.	F 13	ore situated the famous (Fround-	icity connell has made available.	- Buckerfield's Limited ile to Torbit.	half-mile from Stewart has con-	of Atlin are still intriguing capi-	hog anthracite fields which, in	to World War II veterans city- owned lots for half their assess-	Burrard Dry Dock Company Limited tinued to develop veins in its	tal.	quality and quality of fuel	ed value providing they are used	Canadian Western Lumber Company Limited at Alice Arm and lum-	lower addition throughout the	The famous Polaris-Taku on	fields of the continent and the	for the building of homes for	H. R. MacMillan Export Company Limited being cut preparatory to	winter. John Haahti is manager	a hive of activity with production	world. Their development and	occupancy by those veterans.	Powell River Company Limited a mill near the mine.	Big Four this year has con-	of gold exceeding 2000 ounces	opening up have long been en-	However, with the exception	Sidney Roofing & Paper Company Limited mill will have a capa-	tinued underground development	nor month under margament	visioned.	of the wartime Housing struc-	10
fom 500 to 400 cons daily	by drifting and drilling on the	of Frank S Mc Pherson		tures, now taken over by Cen-
, Manager of the pro-	Silverado part of the merged	Mining is definitely on the	BANKING	tral Mortgage and Housing Corp,	A start
n. D. Forman.	properties. It is planned this	make again in Northern and	Do you want to be a million-	a Crown subsidiary, there are	744 West Hading Court detion of this road 18	summer to do more prospecting	Central British Columbia.	aire? If you can arrange with	Tew nomes available. Real es-	744 West Hastings Street Wood, Gundy & Company Vancouver the Arm will normalit conter	on the surface where the face	No review of the mining situ-	the banks of Prince Rupert to	tate dealers have noted a brisk to other properties higher	The Binge group on the north	ation in the Prince Rupert aree	have their take for a month	improvement in the purchase of homes since the city got its	Telephone: Pacific 5531 valley.	fork of Bitter Creek 17 miles	would be complete without ref-	million nassos through their	morale-boosting pulp mill out-
he Esperanza mine, a mile	from Stewart is also coming	Resources of the Telkwa district,	hands every month	look.
and the second s	in and brendre is also coming	ricesources of the reawa district,	i manus every monen.

Annual Convention of the Associated Board of Trade of Central B.C. The City of Prince Rupert - Key to the Great Northwest - welcomes the business leaders of this province and Alaska to this important convention to share with us in shaping the trade and industrial destiny of Central and Northern British Columbia. We know that present developments and our future expectations are largely the result of such deliberations and efforts in the past and we wish the present convention every success. NORA E. ARNOLD GEO. W. RUDDERHAM ARTHUR S. NICKERSON GEO. B. CASEY ARTHUR BROOKSBANK ROBERT McKAY CLIFFORD G. HAM

THOMAS B. BLACK

T. NORTON YOUNGS