

Mooseheart Youngsters
Make Good Citizens

MOOSEHEART, ILL.—These children frolicking in the wading pool will grow up to be good citizens. Mooseheart, both home and school for dependent children, has never had one of its graduates who has been a trouble with the law.

Out-of-Town Couple Wed At Cathedral

A central British Columbia man claimed a Toronto girl as his bride at a quiet wedding ceremony solemnized by Canon W. F. Rushbrook at St. Andrew's Cathedral Saturday night when Miss Marjorie Annice Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wood, of Toronto, was joined in marriage to Magnus Bjorne Hougen, of Tatalrose, son of Mr. and Mrs. Berent Hougen of Whitehorse.

Attending the bride, who wore a rose street-length dress with rose corsage, was Mrs. Lavern L. Christopherson, of Prince Rupert. She wore a dress of jersey print with corsage of carnations. Mr. Christopherson was the groomsmen.
A reception in the Broadway Cafe followed the ceremony at which 25 guests congratulated the newly-married couple. Toast to the bride was proposed by R. B. Rawson. The bride's table was centred with a wedding cake which she cut in traditional manner. A buffet luncheon was followed by dancing to music by Andy McNaughton at the piano.
Mr. and Mrs. Hougen left the city today for Tatalrose where Mr. Hougen operates a logging business.

Miss Yvonne Morin returned from a holiday trip to Vancouver on the Coquitlam Sunday afternoon.
Mrs. L. M. Feisenthal returned to the city Sunday afternoon on the Coquitlam from a holiday trip spent in Vancouver and California.
