NAZIS LOSE OUT IN DANZIG ELECTION

PRAIRIES SNOW-LADEN AS RESULT OF WEEK-END BLIZZARD

Hitlerites Fall Short Of Two-Thirds Required To Control Baltic Port

Move to Create Dictatorship and Unite Free City With Germany Failed by Seventeen Thousand Votes In Poll Held Yesterday

FREE CITY OF DANZIG, April 8: (CP)—The Nazis failed by seventeen thousand votes yesterday to create a dictatorship in Danzig in their drive to unite with Germany. Final official figures in the election of a Volkstag or Parliament showed that they polled fifty-nine percent of the votes, falling short of the 62,000 or two-thirds of the total vote needed to gain control of the Legislature.

MAY ALLOW RE-ARMING

Three-Power Conference to Permit Austria, Hungary and Bulgaria To Follow German Lead

Capt. Eden Ill

Will Be Unable to Attend at Stresa; Is Blow to British Hopes

LONDON, April 8: (CP)—Austria, Hungary and Bulgaria may be permitted to follow Germany's lead in re-arming themselves at the conference to be opened this week at Stresa, Italy, by Great Britain, France and Italy, it was said Saturday night by the Evening Standard.

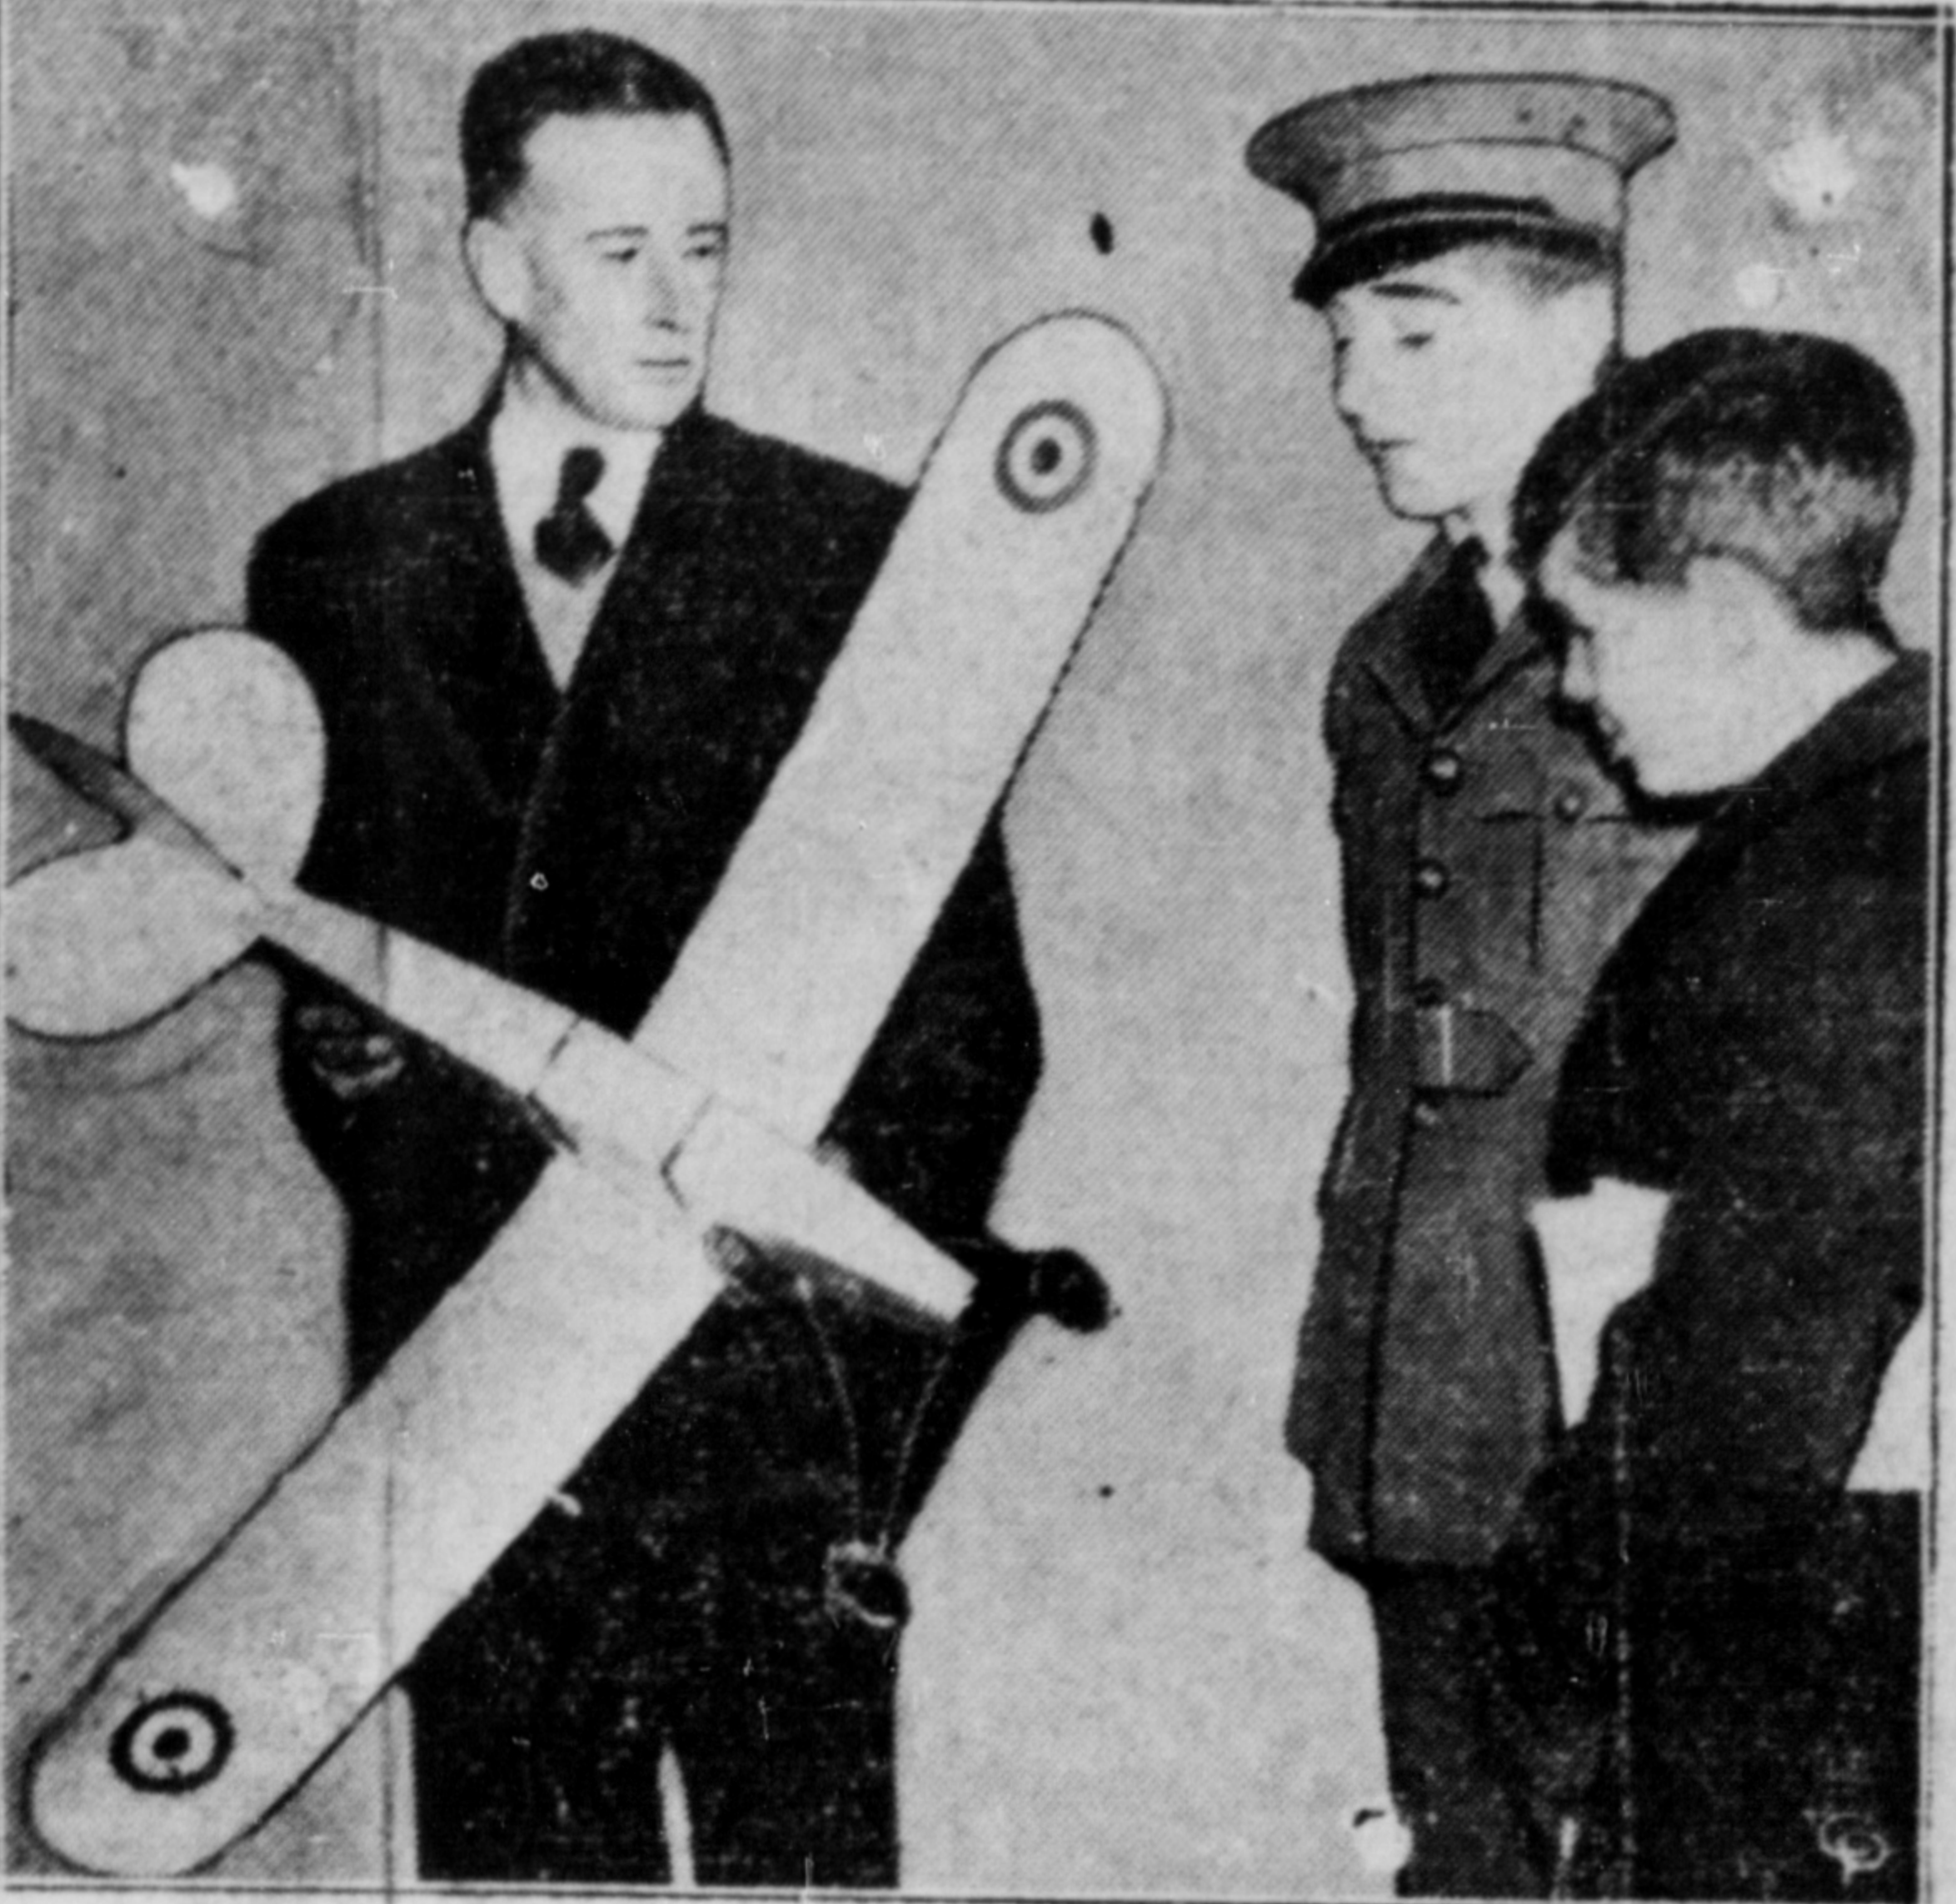

Capt. Anthony Eden, Lord Privy Seal, is suffering from heart strain and a complete rest for from four to six weeks has been ordered by physicians.

Capt. Eden just returned at the end of the week after visiting Berlin, Moscow, Warsaw and Prague to hold discussions preparatory to the conference at Stresa on the subject of European armament. His illness is considered a severe blow to British hopes at that conference.

Prime Minister J. Ramsay MacDonald and Foreign Secretary Sir John Simon will head the British delegation at Stresa.

Premier Flandin will head the French delegation.

Fame Fleeting For Daring Flier

A story, published in London, Eng. and told the plight of Captain H. C. Baird, 1926 winner of the Schneider Cup Aviation trophy, who was unemployed and desperately in need. A most immediately a London shop employed Captain Baird, in its model aeroplane department, and he is shown here, on the job, showing models to a group of young air enthusiasts. Captain Baird won the trophy in 1926 by speeding his plane at the then amazing pace of 226 miles an hour. His last air job was that of private pilot to Mrs. Jimmy James, wealthy American.

Additional Moisture Will Put Seed Bed in Good Shape For Crops

From Six to Eight Inches on Ground in Southern Alberta With Somewhat Less in North—Drifts Cripple Transportation Services

CALGARY, April 8: (CP)—Farmers of Alberta today viewed their blizzard-swept fields with a snowfall of from six to eight inches blanketing the south country with a less heavy fall in the north. Starting late Saturday, the blizzard was continuing this morning and, while delaying preparatory work, the additional moisture will put the seed bed in good shape and aid the pastures. Heavy drifts in the south have badly crippled transportation services.

Anti-Christian

GENERAL LUDENDORFF

LONDON, April 8: (CP)—General Erich Ludendorff, according to a Reuter's report from Munich, breaking a long silence on the eve of his seventieth birthday tomorrow, proudly styled himself "an anti-Christian and a heathen," placing the blame on Christianity for Germany's collapse in 1918 and adding that, "only through complete renunciation of Christianity, will the German people achieve the unity they need." As a result of Ludendorff's assertions, the Roman Catholic Church and the Protestant Confessional Synod will refuse to fly flags on his birthday despite Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler's order.

Twenty-One Years Tomorrow Since First Train Arrived In Prince Rupert From East

The local line of the Canadian National Railways becomes of age tomorrow. It will be the twenty-first anniversary of the arrival here of the first passenger train to come through from Winnipeg following the linking up of the line in the Nechako Valley.

It was a beautiful, warm summer-like day when the first through train drew in to be greeted by thousands of cheering citizens, a gala day being made of the occasion.

Christopher J. Graham, veteran engineer, whose impending superannuation was announced recently, was at the throttle of the locomotive and the late Frank Rowell was the conductor in charge.

The train consisted of baggage coach, tourist coach, diner, Pullman sleeper and the private car "Transcontinental" of the vice-president of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, Morley Donaldson, who was accompanied by a large party of officials.

HONORS AT WELLESLEY

Daughter of Late E. C. Gibbons Of Prince Rupert Received Scholastic Award

Miss Mary M. Gibbons, daughter of the late E. C. Gibbons of Prince Rupert, who lost his life by drowning at Hartley Bay several years ago, recently won high honors at Wellesley College. She was named a Wellesley College Scholar from the Senior Class, an annual award based on high scholastic attainments. The announcement was made on Honor's Day at the formal chapel service, President William Allan Neilson of Smith College being the honors day guest speaker in connection with the ceremonies.

Miss Gibbons was born in California. Her mother came to Prince Rupert with Mr. Gibbons when they were married but found it necessary to visit California for her health and she died there within a year after the child was born. After her mother's death, the little girl was brought up by her grandparents in Bangor, Maine. She spent a summer vacation in Prince Rupert with her father not long before the fatal accident which left her orphaned. She will be remembered as a vivacious girl, fond of outdoor life and this characteristic she has kept up for she recently won her "W" in the highly competitive activities of the college riding club.

Naturally many Prince Rupert people will be pleased to hear of the success of Miss Gibbons. As a member of the firm of McCaffery & Gibbons, her father was well known and influential in the life of this city and the daughter is carrying the family name a step farther ahead by winning honors at an early age.
