THAT "SAVAGE ATTACK"

Readers of the Daily News will be interested to learn that on Saturday last there was in this paper "a savage outburst" against Marxism. That is what we are told in an unsigned letter to the editor. The writer of the letter also states that the writer of the editorial knows nothing of Marx's economics or of political history. He also says that the editorial to which he refers was "dirt slinging." He says further that such "explosions" are only "the result of pure ignorance" and, toward the end of the letter he proceeds to get excited and uses language which is not usually used in decent publications, not, at any rate, in the "capitalistic press."

Now, as a matter of fact Marxism and Russia were only introduced as examples of what not to do. The writer has read everything he could procure on the Russian situation and tried to do so sympathetically. The great Russian experiment is one that has excited much comment for and against. We think it promises well to succeed but it is today far from being successful. It is making progress and we wish it well. At the same time we do not wish to see Canada following the same hard road.

The difficulty with admirers of Russia is that they read chiefly those things which praise the condition there and stamp as lies the reports of conditions which Canada would not allow to exist for twenty-four hours. All other reports, many of which undoubtedly are reliable, they characterize as propaganda or "capitalist lies."

Most of the citizens of Canada have come from countries where democratic government has slowly evolved and the people have been trained to study political questions. These people know that it is wise to go slowly in making political or economic changes. That is why they are planning to vote for the Liberal party at the present election. For those who have not had that training, we have the greatest sympathy. We wish them well and feel sure when their descendants have been Canadians for a few generations they will have been educated and trained to a point where they can look at economic development in a rational manner and be willing to co-operate for the common good. They would never be educated if they lived under a dictator as in Russia or Germany or Italy where discussion of economic questions is not allowed or is so regulated that opposition to the ruling faction is stifled or wiped out by strong arm methods.

MAXIE HAS BIG PLANS

Victory Over Joe Louis Merely Incidental In His Plans For Future

Louis' Promise

Guarantees To Finish It In Two Rounds—Braddock Changes His Mind Again

NEW YORK, September 24:—In spite of what most of experts may think about it, Max Baer now has the plans for his future fistic career all doped out. He will (he says) knock out Joe Louis, Detroit's black bomber, in their bout tonight and, as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made, will proceed to do the same to James J. Braddock and thus regain his lost world's heavyweight championship title. But, that is not all. After taking a shot at the movies, Max announces that he will retire from the ring and devote his efforts to capturing the national golf championship. Thus are summarized Max's modest plans.

Mr. Louis' plans are, however, different than Mr. Baer's. The African gentleman with the wicked punch has not been saying much but he guarantees that tonight's fight will out last more than two rounds. Nor is it in accordance with his intentions that it should be he who will be reclining on the canvass to spoil the fun for the big crowd of cauliflower fans who have already coughed up $1,000,000 for admission tickets.

James J. Braddock, the champion, who first favored Baer and then turned to Louis, has changed his mind again and now expresses the opinion that Baer will take the decision. Louis will punch at the big Californian Jew until he wears himself out, Braddock thinks. However, not everybody respects Mr. Braddock's fickle opinion for it is still thought by many that Jimmy himself was the most surprised man around the ring in which a few months ago he knocked the title laurels off Max's playful brow. There are also those who suspect that the wish may be father of the thought of Jimmy's in favoring Baer for the next title challenger.

Baer is expected to weigh in at about 210 pounds and Louis at 199. Odds are 11 to 5 on Louis.

Dionne Quints Fine Influence

Edmonton Doctor Back From East Says Medical Feith Boosted

EDMONTON, Sept. 24: (CP)—The Dionne quintuplets are making Canada "health conscious," they are boosting the public faith in medical science and a healthier, sturdier race is bound to result, said Dr. W. A. Atkinson, Edmonton physician, recently returned from a visit to the east and Canada's five most famous little girls.

"The wonder workers at Callander, Ont.—Yvonne, Annette, Cecile, Emille and Marie—have done remarkable things during their short, colorful careers that have brought twentieth century medical practitioners and people of the world to a better understanding, Dr. Atkinson declared.

"These little girls are beautiful babies," he assured as he told of his visit. "The fact they have developed so wonderfully in view of the disadvantages that were theirs at birth is a tribute to modern medicine."

The quints, Dr. Atkinson said, are the greatest tourist attraction in Eastern Canada with visitors from all over the world gathering at Callander. "These five little girls should put a decided crimp in the age-old controversy of heredity versus environment. The environment supporters certainly have a powerful argument on their side in the Dionne children. All five of them are normal, enthusiastic youngsters," he said.

District News

TERRACE

A Memorial service was held recently for Knute Olson who is presumed to have been drowned in the Copper River three weeks ago. The service was held at the United Church and the building was filled, not only by the members of that church but by many others who wished to pay last respects to a man who had proved through many years his many good qualities and his usefulness to the community as a good citizen. Mr. Olson took up land in the early days of Terrace and cleared a large area of heavy forest upon which he successfully conducted a dairy farm for several years. His wife predeceased him some years ago and, as a widower, he was left with a boy and a girl who, now in their teens, are themselves bereaved.

On Tuesday last Hon Ian MacKenzie spoke here in support of the Liberal candidature of Olof Hanson. Mr. MacKenzie spoke in the Oddfellows' Hall which was full to overflowing. Harry King acted as chairman and, at the close of the address by Mr. MacKenzie, invited questions from the audience which brought the evening to a good-humored finish with "God Save the King."

WHY ISLANDERS ARE LIBERAL

Editor, Daily News:

First, Mackenzie King, Liberal leader in Canada, is the only leader of a political party that is still leading his party since 1919. All through the British Empire all leaders of different political parties that were elected during the hectic days of 1919 have vanished. Yet Mackenzie King is still leader of his party. There must be a reason. One of these reasons is King knows what it is to struggle against great odds.

Mr. Hanson knows what it is to go hungry, what it is to want and what hard work means. He also knows what our fisheries are and what should be done about them. He knows what our mining is what our timber business is, what our farming is. He is directly interested in all of these.

These are some of the main reasons the Islanders are sending Mr. Hanson back to Ottawa. The Islanders are not blaming Hanson for some of the mistakes made by our provincial government. Hanson has never made a promise that he could not keep. The Islanders have judged Hanson by his past record, and their judgment is: "Send him back to Ottawa with his own Party, that will soon be swept back into power again." This time he will be sitting in the seat of government, not the opposition. He will manage to give his riding what it wants.

Hanson Receives Good Reception At Every Point

After having held highly successful meetings at Port Clements and Massett at both of which points sustained interest in the Liberal cause was quite apparent, Olof Hanson, Liberal candidate for Skeena in the forthcoming federal election, and party have crossed to the mainland aboard the halibut boat Helen II, Capt. Peter Byrne, to visit coastal points. On Sunday they were at Butedale and yesterday at Namu, Ocean Falls, Bella Coola and other points will be visited.

"Never in the history of the Queen Charlotte Islands has a political party received such a rousing welcome as did Olof Hanson, E. T. Kenney, Jim Bacon and Alex Prudhomme while in Skidegate Inlet last week," says a correspondent on the Queen Charlotte Islands in writing to the Daily News.

The first Liberal meeting was held in the school house at Skidegate. Every person in the town attended, it being the biggest political meeting ever held at Skidegate. It was a Hanson crowd, too. E. C. Stevens acted as chairman and Messrs. Hanson, Kenney, Bacon and Prudhomme all spoke.

Next day Mr. Hanson and his party went to Sandspit and visited all the settlers there. It was quite evident that Sandspit is also supporting Hanson.

The same evening a meeting was held at Queen Charlotte City in Miller's Hall. Harry Beaven acted as chairman and the meeting was packed. Hanson enthusiasm was once more undiminished. It was Mr. Kenney's first visit to the Islands.

Everybody reads the Daily News "here's a reason."

Sets York Record For Laying Eggs

Four Yellow Centres From Waltham Leghorn Hen In Vancouver

VANCOUVER, Sept. 24: (CP)—A white leghorn hen, owned by George Hermanson, of Webster Corners, claims the distinction of being the only hen to lay what the poultry experts believe to be the only four-yolked egg ever seen. The egg, larger than average size, was found to contain four yolks when candled at the Consumers Co-operative Association factory here.
