Staff Sergeant McNeill Honored

Presentation Made This Afternoon To Esteemed Police Officer Who Is Leaving Service

Local members of the provincial police force gathered this afternoon at divisional headquarters here to honor Staff Sergeant Alex McNeill, for many years district chief here, who is severing his connection with the force today owing to the illness of Mrs. McNeill which makes a move to Vancouver necessary.

On behalf of divisional, district and city officers, Inspector John A. Fraser presented Staff Sergeant McNeill with a handsome crocodile hide travelling bag as a token of esteem and well-wishing. Appropriate remarks were made by the inspector in making the presentation and Staff Sergeant McNeill, who was taken completely by surprise, replied suitably.

MOTHERS: be sure to get these Kellogg's WHEAT KRISPIES DOLLS for your children

ONE DOLL FREE with each purchase of two packages of Wheat Krispies

In actual size these dolls are 9 to 12 inches tall and printed in full, bright colors

You've never seen cloth dolls as cute and colorful as these! Created by Vernon Grant, whose paintings for the Kellogg Company have won millions of friends among little folks.

Now for the first time these Vernon Grant animals have been made into dolls—printed in full colors on stout cloth—all ready to be sewn up and stuffed with cotton.

HOW TO GET THEM

You can't buy dolls like these. But you can get them FREE at your grocer's! Just buy two packages of Kellogg's Wheat Krispies and he'll give you a cloth doll. Your children will love them—and enjoy Wheat Krispies too.

YOU'LL LIKE WHEAT KRISPIES

Kellogg's Wheat Krispies are a new kind of cereal—whole wheat blended with rice. They're delicious, and they stay crisp in milk or cream! Nourishing. Ready to serve.

Your youngsters will want all four of the cloth dolls—frog, duck, cat and dog. You can get all you like while the supply lasts—one FREE with each purchase of two packages. Kellogg's Wheat Krispies are made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

Orme Stuart Has Passed as Chemist

Local Young Man Succeeds in His Major Pharmaceutical Examinations, Announced

VANCOUVER, Oct. 31: (CP)—Pharmacy examination results announced yesterday include the name of Orme G. Stuart of Prince Rupert who passed major examinations and is entitled to the diploma of a pharmaceutical chemist. In passing his tests for a senior drug-gist's certificate, Mr. Stuart came second in the province. He lost first place in special chemistry by only three marks. He is a son of A. T. Stuart of Vancouver.

A nephew of C. H. Orme, pioneer local druggist, Orme Stuart took his pharmaceutical training here. For the past few months he has been in Vancouver where he has located now.
