ARREST WEYERHAUSER KIDNAPPERS

MARINE TIE-UP DOWN COAST BECOMING MORE SERIOUS

Principals in Tacoma Kidnapping Case

Anxious to pay the $200,000 ransom for the safe return of their boy, the family of nine-year-old George Philip Weyerhaeuser of Tacoma, Wash., succeeded in contacting the kidnapers and securing the lad's return. Photos show the boy, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Weyerhaeuser, jr., their home and the school George attended, which he had just left when he was abducted. Arrest of the kidnapers has been made.

Third Party to Crime Has Escaped But Officers Are Hot On Trail—Trial is Being Planned to Take Place in State Courts

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 10: (CP)—J. Edgar Hoover, director of the federal bureau of investigation, announced last night that two persons giving the names of Mr. and Mrs. Herman M. Waley of Salt Lake City, Utah, were arrested and had made a full confession of participating in the Weyerhaeuser kidnaping. They involved William Mahan, for whom a search has been started, Hoover said.

Hot On Trail

SALT LAKE CITY, June 10: (CP)—United States agents are hot on the trail of William Mahan, ex-convict, as one of the leaders in the Weyerhaeuser kidnaping case at Tacoma. Mahan is believed to be near Butte, Mon., where he fled yesterday after abandoning a car with $15,000 of the ransom money in it. Mahan was recognized by a city detective who attempted to question him.

Meantime, arrangements are being made to transport Mr. and Mrs. Herman M. Waley back to Tacoma to stand trial and it is possible the couple may be flown to the coast late today. Mrs. Waley is twenty years of age and her husband is twenty-four.

Ask Death Sentence

TACOMA, June 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Herman M. Waley, arrested in Salt Lake City for the kidnaping of young George Weyerhaeuser, will be tried in the Washington state courts and demand for the death penalty under the recently strengthened kidnaping statutes will be made.

The arrest of Mr. and Mrs. Waley is believed to have been made as a result of officers tracing a trail of the ransom notes which started last week at Huntingdon, Ore., where a $10 bill was passed in payment for a railway ticket to Salt Lake City. More of the ransom money later turned up at Spokane and at Yakima two men in an automobile, whose general description tallied with those believed to have been involved in the kidnaping, fled when the proprietor of a service station indicated his intention of checking up the number of a $20 note which they had tendered with those of the ransom notes.

Federal "G" men have definitely located a house at 1509 West Eleventh Street, Spokane, in which the kidnapped boy had been held. The hideout contained a cupboard in which the boy was kept. It has also been ascertained that payment of the ransom of $200,000 had been made to representatives of the kidnapers at a point fourteen miles south of this city. Young George Weyerhaeuser and other members of his family have been under special guard since his return in view of threats of the abductors that trouble might be expected if record was kept of the numbers of the ransom bills.

NEW SINO-JAPANESE CONFLICT IMMINENT

TSIENTSIN, China, June 10: —Another Sino-Japanese conflict appeared closer at the week-end. Japanese troops were moving inside the Great Wall of China as well as within the city of Tsientsin ostensibly for the purpose of putting down anti-Japanese activities. The Japanese, it is said, are insistent upon China officially recognizing the Japanese state of Manchukuo.

Longshoremen's Strike In Vancouver Spreads; Prince George Tied Up

Canadian National Steamer Will Not Sail For Prince Rupert Tonight But May Get Away Tomorrow After Vote has Been Taken Today—No Disorders

VANCOUVER, June 10: (CP)—Only two of eighteen deepsea ships were being worked today as the strike of nine hundred longshoremen continued. New Westminster longshoremen have voted for a general strike and coast-wise longshoremen and freight handlers are voting today. The steamer Prince George is tied up owing to the strike and will not sail for the north tonight but may get away by tomorrow.

DEAD AT MASSETT

Mrs. Elizabeth Adams, Mother Of Alfred Adams, Oldest Resident Of Village, Passes Away

Oldest native resident at Massett and link of the old aboriginal days with the modern civilization, Mrs. Elizabeth Adams, venerable Queen Charlotte Island woman, passed away last Wednesday at Massett at the age of ninety years. The funeral took place on Friday with Rev. R. P. Graham, Anglican Church rector of Massett, officiating. The entire population of the village turned out at the rites to pay their final tributes to the memory of deceased.

The late Mrs. Adams, who was born at Massett, is survived by one son, Alfred Adams, well known native leader of Massett, and two daughters, Mrs. Mary Stanley and Mrs. Emily Alexander. John Brown, also of Massett, is a brother.

Strike pickets are still stationed at vantage points along the waterfront but Royal Canadian Mounted Police and provincial police officers, who are now handling the situation entirely, have so far prevented any disorder. San Francisco headquarters of the Maritime Federation have announced that they will not work any "unfair" ships and there is a possibility that Canadian Pacific Railway boats may be affected.
